IN THE DISTRICT COURT

193RD JUDICIAL DISTRICT

PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANTS' FIRST AMENDED MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

TO THE HONORABLE CARL GINSBERG:

Jeffrey Baron respectfully requests that the Court deny the Defendants' First Amended Motion for Summary Judgment because:

1. The Defendants have failed to file competent summary judgment evidence, and the Court should not admit the same;
2. The Defendants cannot prevail show that Baron's claims are barred by res judicata or collateral estoppel, nor are the counterclaims entitled to a summary judgment on the same grounds; and
3. There is no summary judgment evidence even purporting to liquidate any amount of damages or attorneys' fees.

In support, Jeff Baron respectfully shows:

Objections to Defendants' Summary Judgment Evidence

From the outset, the Baron urges the following objections to the Defendants' summary judgment evidence.

Exhibit 1 – Paragraph 6 does not contain the best evidence of the time or amount of the alleged attorneys' fees sought. The Court should disregard any references to the time or amount and rely on the actual time records that were recorded either contemporaneously or closer to the actual event.

Paragraph 29 is a conclusory statement regarding the Defendants' alleged reliance and should not be considered as summary judgment evidence. Conclusory and unsubstantiated factual conclusions should not support a summary judgment. See Harley-Davidson Motor Co. v. Young, 720 S.W.2d 211, 213 (Tex.App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2000, no pet.).

Exhibit D – This is an incomplete e-mail which fails to include the invoice it refers to and which is at the heart of this lawsuit. The e-mail states:

This my firm's bill through 6/30/10. The total outstanding is $217,452.70, less $10,000 I am paying for Kishan's protector and $12,000 that I contributed to pay your protector and trustee fees for June, leaving the total balance at $195,452.70.

This is a substantive defect in the summary judgment evidence. Mincron SBC Corp. v. Worldcom, Inc., 994 S.W.2d 785, 795–96 (Tex.App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1999, no pet.).

Exhibit F – This is a pleading containing statements by Rakhee V. Patel. Not only are the contents of this pleading hearsay, they cannot be used to prove the truth of any fact alleged therein. Baron does not object to the admission of this pleading for the purposes of showing when it was filed or the claims for relief sought therein.

Exhibit G – This is a pleading by a nonparty. Not only are the contents of this pleading hearsay, they cannot be used to prove the truth of any fact alleged therein. Baron does not object to the admission of this pleading for the purposes of showing when it was filed or the claims for relief sought therein.

Exhibit K – The invoices attached as exhibits should not be considered to be the same as referred to in Exhibit D. The date is different—August 1, 2010—than the date that would appear on such invoices when sent in an e-mail on July 23, 2010. Moreover, the due date is not indicated on the invoices. Therefore, these invoices in Exhibit K are not the best evidence of any fees sought by the Defendants when the July 23, 2010 invoices were allegedly sent to Baron.

Exhibit L – The invoices attached as exhibits should not be considered to be the same as referred to in Exhibit D. The date is different—August 1, 2010—than the date that would appear on such invoices when sent in an e-mail on July 23, 2010. Moreover, the due date is not indicated on the invoices. Therefore, these invoices in Exhibit K are not the best evidence of any fees sought by the Defendants when the July 23, 2010 invoices were allegedly sent to Baron.

Exhibit M – This is a pleading containing statements by Baron’s counsel. Not only are the contents of this pleading hearsay, they cannot be used to prove the truth of any fact alleged therein. Baron does not object to the admission of this pleading for the purposes of showing when it was filed or the claims for relief sought therein. Pleading by person not before the court. OK to use to show arguments made, but not the truth of any allegation.

Exhibit N - The invoices attached as exhibits should not be considered to be the same as referred to in Exhibit D. The date is different—August 1, 2010—than the date that would appear on such invoices when sent in an e-mail on July 23, 2010. Moreover, the due date is not indicated on the invoices. Therefore, these invoices in Exhibit K are not the best evidence of any fees sought by the Defendants when the July 23, 2010 invoices were allegedly sent to Baron.

Exhibit 3 – This is a pleading containing statements by Baron’s counsel. Not only are the contents of this pleading hearsay, they cannot be used to prove the truth of any fact alleged therein. Baron does not object to the admission of this pleading for the purposes of showing when it was filed or the claims for relief sought therein. Pleading by person not before the court. OK to use to show arguments made, but not the truth of any allegation.

For the reasons described above, Baron specifically requests that prior to considering the merits of the Motion, that the Court make written rulings on the preceding evidentiary objections. See Stewart v. Sanmina Texas L.P., 156 S.W.3d 198, 206–07 (Tex.App.—Dallas 2005, no pet.) (“We agree with the Waco Court of Appeals that the ‘better practice is for the trial court to disclose, in writing, its rulings on all objections to summary-judgment evidence at or before the time it enters the order granting or denying summary judgment.’”).

III.

Background

For purposes of a response to the merits of the Defendants’ First Amended Motion for Summary Judgment, what started out as a dispute over ownership of property held in trust for the funding of juvenile diabetes research was the beginning of a legal odyssey involving treachery and fraud by the very people entrusted by Baron to protect the interests of the ultimate beneficiaries of the trust. Instead of doing their part to eliminate the scourge of juvenile diabetes, attorneys, such as the Defendants, have used a little property dispute as a gravy train to feed their own greed.

The origin of the disputes originated when Baron and Munish Krishan formed a joint venture involving the ownership and sale of internet domain names. The legal odyssey began when disputes arose between the venturers, resulting in at least seven lawsuits. In April 2009, after four mediation attempts and several years of litigation, Baron, Krishan, and other parties signed a Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) settling all disputes. In large part, the MOU divided ownership of internet domain names between Ondova Limited Company and Netsphere, Inc. Soon, Baron and Ondova Limited Company were accused of breaching the MOU. In May 2009, Krishan and Netsphere, Inc., filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas to enforce the MOU.

A month later, the federal district court quickly entered a preliminary injunction to compel the parties’ compliance with the MOU. The injunction carried penalties of $50,000 per day for violations.

July 27, 2009. With a lack of liquid assets and facing insufficient cash flow, Baron placed Ondova into a Chapter 11 bankruptcy with the goal of reorganizing its affairs. (Ex. E). The bankruptcy case was No. 09-34784 in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division. From this point, the decisions made in the bankruptcy court would effect the proceedings in the federal district court, and vice versa.

September 17, 2009. Due to the history of the litigation, the bankruptcy court quickly appointed a Trustee to oversee Ondova's reorganization. (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. B). It should be noted that the bankruptcy court's order stated:

This cause comes before the Court upon the Application to Approve Appointment of Chapter 11 Trustee filed by the United States Trustee in the above entitled case. It appearing that Daniel J. Sherman was appointed by the United States Trustee after consulting with the appropriate parties-in-interest, that he is qualified under 11 U.S.C. §321(a) to serve as Trustee in this case, and that he has no connection with the United States Trustee or any persons employed by the United States Trustee, it is ORDERED, that the appointment of Daniel J. Sherman as Chapter 11 Trustee in this case be, and is hereby APPROVED.

(Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. B).

Nothing in this order, much less any other other competent summary judgment evidence, states a reason for the appointment of a Trustee.¹

Prior to the Trustee being appointed, Ondova was controlled by Baron. At all material times, Baron was a "party in interest" who had standing to propose a plan of reorganization and to object to plans proposed by others.² This is what the Defendants were hired to do—file and get confirmed a plan of reorganization. (Ex. A).

Baron, through his then attorney, Elizabeth Schurig, and the Defendants entered into an oral agreement regarding the scope of the representation. Baron was told that the cost of the representation would be $75,000 and if Baron requested the Defendants to undertake additional matters the parties would negotiate a new fee agreement. The Defendants required the $75,000 fee to be paid in advance, and there is no dispute that this fee was paid by the Village Trust. (Ex. A)

¹ Trustees may be appointed in Chapter 11 cases for any number of reasons under the bankruptcy court's broad equity powers. See In re Eichorn, 5 B.R. 755, 757-58 (Bank. D. Mass. 1980) (Congress has given the bankruptcy courts a flexible standard for the appointment of trustees in Chapter 11 cases).

Having never committing a fee agreement to writing where the Defendants agreed to have a third party pay Baron's fees, the Defendants performed various legal services for over 10 months. They never sent Baron any kind of invoice or sought to modify the terms of the oral fee agreement. Despite this work, the Defendants failed to perform the essential task for which they were hired—getting confirmed a plan of reorganization so that Ondova could successfully emerge from bankruptcy. Moreover, during this 10 months, Pronske engaged in behaviors that was detrimental to Baron's interests. He failed to attend court hearings, left the court in the middle of at least one hearing without being excused by the Court and failed to return, and failed to attend at least one scheduled mediation in Baron's case, allegedly because he was in jail, and he was typically tardy to other scheduled meetings. (Ex. A).

July 22, 2010. One such example of such unprofessional and outright bizarre conduct occurred July 22, 2010 before Bankruptcy Judge, Stacey Jernigan. After a recess, the bankruptcy court resumed its hearing where Pronske was representing Baron:

THE COURT: Please be seated. We're going back on the record in Ondova.

It was longer than a five-minute break, but it was a productive break for me. We're looking for Mr. MacPete, Mr. Pronske? There is Mr. MacPete. Where is Mr. Pronske?

MR. MACPETE: I've been told he had to leave.

THE COURT: Okay. Brandon, take note. I'll talk to you about that later. I didn't give Mr. Pronske permission to leave, but that's another issue.

(Baron Ex. I, ln. 18-25; p. 48, ln. 1).

July 23, 2010. The next day, the Defendants sent Baron an e-mail which stated:

This is my firm's bill through 6/30/10. The total outstanding is $217,452.70, less $10,000 I am paying for Krishan's protector and $12,000 that I contributed to pay your protector and trustee fees for June, leaving the total balance at $195,452.70. . . .

I will need to get this paid as soon as possible.

(Pronske Ex. D) (emphasis added).

This was the very first invoice ever sent to Baron in regards to any matter related to the Ondova bankruptcy. Naturally, Baron was shocked and called the Plaintiff to discuss the matter. During the conversation, Pronske's demeanor was hostile and uncompromising. He demanded immediate payment of a substantial portion of the invoice and threatened that "there would be dire consequences" if he did not meet his inflexible demand "within the next few days." (Ex. A).

July 27, 2010. Baron had another conversation with Pronske in an attempt to reach an amicable resolution over the billing situation. Baron's overtures were again rebuffed. A few hours later, Pronske sent an e-mail to Baron informing him that the Defendants were terminating their representation of Baron effective immediately. (Ex. L). Yet, the Defendants, which were the lead counsel for Baron in the bankruptcy court, failed to take any action to withdraw. This left Baron in an extremely compromised position with the bankruptcy court, which was left with the impression that the Defendants were representing Baron and assisting him in complying with the court's orders. This occurred, for example, on August 25, 2010 when the Defendant informed opposing counsel that he was no longer representing Baron. (Ex. M). Yet, it would be almost two weeks until the Defendants actually got around to withdrawing.

This left Baron unable to comply with the bankruptcy court's orders and that had to be complied with the next day. In an attempt to halt the burgeoning problems that Pronske and his firm's abandonment was causing, Baron scrambled to find replacement counsel to substitute into the case. When Baron found replacement counsel, the Defendants refused to turnover Baron's files, and they refused to cooperate in obtaining an order substituting counsel.³ Instead, Pronske held Baron's files hostage, refusing to turn them over to Baron or his new counsel until the invoice was paid in full. (Ex. A).

Before the Defendants abandoned their representation of Baron, they participated in the negotiation of a Global Settlement Agreement, which included substituting trustees for the Village Trust, which was a trust established under the laws of the Cook Islands. Pronske personally recommended and identified an "offshore" trustee to Baron. The terms of the GSA were disclosed to the bankruptcy court. The Defendants were well aware of Baron's inability to find a replacement for the Trustee of The Village Trust, and Pronske so advised Judge Jernigan on more than one occasion of such difficulties and in Pronske's participation in the same.⁴

September 7, 2010. Against this backdrop and six weeks after the Defendants notified Baron they were terminating their representation of Baron, they filed an Emergency Motion to

³ Since Pronske was designated as lead counsel for Baron in the bankruptcy court, he was required to file a motion to withdraw or substitute new counsel prior to being permitted to represent Baron as lead counsel. Loc. Bankr. R. 2091-1, available at http://www.txnb.uscourts.gov/sites/txnb/files/local_rules/TXNB_Local_Rules_Revised_4.12.12.pdf.

⁴ During June and July 2010, the bankruptcy court and the Ondova's Trustee were pressing Baron to identify a new person or entity who would be willing to serve as Trustee for the Village Trust. Pronske appeared before the bankruptcy court on more than one occasion to inform the court that Baron was having difficulties finding a replacement trustee. After the Defendants abandoned Baron, Baron continued his attempts to find a replacement trustee with no immediate success. Keenly aware of the pressure exerted by the bankruptcy court and Ondova's Trustee to secure a replacement trustee immediately. Ultimately Baron was able to locate a willing replacement trustee in the Cook Islands, and by Deed of Resignation of Trustee and Appointment of Successor Trustee of the Village Trust dated September 21, 2010, Stowe Protectors Ltd., then the Protector under The Village Trust, appointed Southpac Trust International, Inc. to act as the Trustee of the Village Trust. Southpac was identified and approved by the bankruptcy court as the Replacement Trustee.

Withdraw on September 7, 2010.⁵ They also filed an *Emergency Motion for Expedited Hearing*⁶ in which they alleged:

6. Expedited consideration of the Motion to Withdraw is warranted by the impending time-sensitive issues in this case. Upon information and belief, Pronske Patel has recently learned that Mr. Baron intends to transfer assets to an offshore entity over which U.S. Courts will not have jurisdiction, in order to hide those assets from legitimate creditors. Upon information and belief, Mr. Baron will be transferring such assets around September 15, 2010. In order to pursue state court remedies against such assets and to comply with all ethical obligations, Pronske Patel must withdraw as counsel of record for Mr. Baron by September 15, 2010. Thus, Pronske Patel must respectfully request that the Court grant relief on an expedited basis, so that Pronske Patel may withdraw prior to the transfer of assets by Mr. Baron. Accordingly, Pronske Patel respectfully requests a hearing on the Motion to Withdraw on an expedited basis, on or before September 15, 2010. Specifically, Pronske Patel requests that this matter be set before or at the same time as the expedited status conference currently set in this case on September 15, 2010 at 1:30 p.m. [Docket No. 22].
7. Pronske Patel has recently learned that Baron intends to hide his assets offshore as early as September 15, 2010. Thus, the hearing will need to move forward expeditiously to prevent Mr. Baron's unlawful activities.

(Ex. F, ¶¶ 6-7) (emphasis added).

These statements were designed to do nothing but injure Baron and his position before the bankruptcy court. These treacherous statements were a total fabrication. A unanimous panel of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit held:

Neither the trustee nor the receiver has pointed to record evidence that Baron failed to transfer the domain names in accordance with the agreement. He had other obligations, but there is no record evidence brought to our attention that any discrete assets subject to the settlement agreement were being moved beyond the reach of the court. . . .

⁵ Baron's new counsel had previously been unsuccessful in securing the Defendant's cooperation in substituting counsel. (Ex. A).

We do not, though, find evidence that Baron was threatening to nullify the global settlement agreement by transferring domain names outside the court's jurisdiction. Accordingly, the receivership cannot be justified in this instance on the basis that it was needed to take control of the property that was the subject of the litigation.

Netsphere, Inc. v. Baron, 703 F.3d 296, 307–08 (5th Cir. 2012).

Most disturbing, the alleged “unlawful activities” were performed under Pronske's direction and supervision as he described to the bankruptcy court only a few months prior.

September 15, 2010. On September 15, 2010, Baron filed this case—DC-10-11915. In his Original Petition, Baron sought a declaration that the amount of fees and expenses charged by the Defendants was unreasonable and unconscionable, or, alternatively, that the fee was not owed because of the Defendants' poor billing practices, their failure to enter into a written fee agreement with Baron, and their failure to achieve the objectives of the representation. Baron also sought to enjoin the Defendants from disclosing attorney–client communications and confidential information.

September 15, 2010. The same date, the Defendants removed the lawsuit to the Bankruptcy Court where it became Adversary Proceeding 10-03281 under the umbrella Ondova bankruptcy. (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. R).

September 20, 2010. The Defendants filed their Application of Pronske & Patel, P.C., for Payment of Fees as an Administrative Expense for a Substantial Contribution to the Estate in the Ondova bankruptcy. (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. K).

September 27, 2010. On September 27, 2010, the Defendants filed an answer and counterclaim. Baron moved to remand the Adversary Proceeding to this Court. Instead, the Adversary Proceeding was abated for over 3½ years. During the abatement:

1. Baron was placed into an illegal receivership, by the United States District Court, at the urging of Ondova's Trustee.
2. Baron was placed into an involuntary bankruptcy within two hours of the Fifth Circuit's finding that the receivership was illegal and remanding the case for the expeditious wind-down of the receivership.
3. The Defendants unsuccessfully sought an ex parte garnishment, in Adversary Proceeding 10-03281, of accounts still held in receivership following the United States District Court's reversal of the bankruptcy court's orders placing Baron into an involuntary bankruptcy.
4. No longer having luck in the federal courts, the Defendants then obtained an ex parte garnishment in Case No. DC-14-02622.⁷

On May 19, 2014, Adversary Proceeding 10-03281 was remanded to this Court, over the Defendants' objections. (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. R).

On November 24, 2010, the federal district court in the Netsphere litigation entered an ex parte order appointing Peter Vogel as Receiver over all of Baron's exempt and non-exempt assets. Baron was specifically prohibited from managing any of his financial affairs and retaining any attorneys, whether or not he was to pay for their services with his funds. For example, the order stated:

[T]he Court hereby takes exclusive jurisdiction over, and grants the Receiver exclusive control over, any and all "Receivership Assets", which term shall include and all legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, and real or personal property . . . , lines of credit, chattels, leaseholds, contracts, mail or other deliveries, shares of stock, lists of consumer names, accounts, credits, premises, receivables, funds, and all cash, wherever located.

(Ex. K).

⁷ This garnishment case was ultimately consolidated into the present case, DC-10-11915.

Vogel, as Receiver, effectively (a) seized all Baron's assets, and (b) restricted Baron from managing his financial affairs, entering into agreements, traveling, hiring attorneys or other professionals to represent his interests. (Ex. K).

While the federal district court's Order Appointing Receiver was in effect, enjoining "any suit or proceeding" against, or on behalf of, Baron,⁸ the Defendants filed their Second Amended Application of Pronske & Patel, P.C. for Payment of Fees as an Administrative Expense for Substantial Contribution to the Estate (the "Fee Application"). (Mot. for Summ. J., Ex. D). The Defendants alleged that they were entitled to $294,033.87 in attorneys' fees from the Ondova Estate relating to an alleged substantial contribution they made to the Ondova Estate during its bankruptcy case. As a party in interest, Baron objected to this Fee Application, and he had standing to do so. (Mot. for Summ. J., Ex. D).

On November 13, 2012, the bankruptcy court held a hearing on the Fee Application. The ultimate issue was whether the Defendants substantially contributed to the Ondova Estate; however, there was no determination related to the Defendants' claims against Baron or Baron's claims against the Defendants—the very claims presently before this Court.

During this hearing, Baron, who was under a receivership, was not able to cross-examine Pronske or present controverting evidence regarding the Defendants' alleged substantial contribution to the Ondova Estate. This was because Baron had been sanctioned for alleged discovery abuse, based upon Pronske's misrepresentations to the Court that Baron had been served with a deposition notice, when, in fact, there was no such service. As a predictable and foreseeable result of this sanction, Baron was greatly prejudiced as the issues pertaining to Pronske's purported substantial contribution to the Ondova Estate were not fully and fairly litigated.

Predictably, the bankruptcy court entered an Order Granting Second Amended Application of Pronske & Patel, P.C. for Payment of Fees as an Administrative Expense for a Substantial Contribution to the Estate (the "Substantial Contribution Award"). (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. P.).

It states, in part:

Ordered that The application is hereby granted; and it is further Ordered that Pronske & Patel is entitled and hereby allowed an administrative claim for a substantial contribution in the above-captioned case under 11 U.S.C. 503(b)(4) in the total amount of $294,033.87

(Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. P).

Pronske was afforded no further relief, nor was Baron found liable for any of the fees sought by the Defendants.

The bankruptcy court did not provide any findings of fact or conclusions of law or any memorandum detailing the court's reasons for approving the Substantial Contribution Award against the Ondova Estate. (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. P). Without the bankruptcy court's findings of fact or conclusions of law, this Court cannot determine what issues were "essential to the judgment." Of importance, the bankruptcy court made no determination of any of the issues or claims in the Adversary Proceeding 10-03781 between Baron and the Defendants. In fact, the bankruptcy court would enter no orders in that case until May 19, 2014, the date the case was remanded to this Court. (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. R).

For multiple reasons, the Substantial Contribution Order is on appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit under Case No. 14-10198.

December 18, 2012. The Fifth Circuit reversed the receivership in Netsphere, Inc. v. Baron,⁹ so the Defendants had to resort to a backup plan—involuntary bankruptcy. To be a petitioning creditor in an involuntary bankruptcy case, petitioning creditors must prove:

1. They had a claim that is not contingent as to liability or subject to a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount.
2. The proposed debtor is not paying its debts as they become due, except those debts subject to a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount.

11 U.S.C. §§ 303(b), 303(h).

The foundation of the involuntary petition was a Fee Order entered by the district court in the Netsphere case. In the Fee Order, the court specifically found Pronske & Patel, P.C. to have proved a claim of $251,912.70 against Baron but proposed a disbursement of $177,352.70. (Ex. N). Most telling about Baron's claims against the Defendants in this case was the following:

36. As stated above, the Court understands that certain of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims are claiming that, in addition to the amounts of the Former Attorney Claims, they are entitled to being Punitive Claims. Furthermore, the Court understands that eight of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claimants are seeking the amounts not being awarded to them because of the Fee Cap Reduction (and which these claimants have a right to challenge through motion before this Court or through an appeal). The Court also understands that Baron claims that certain of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims are allegedly liable for legal malpractice and other civil claims (collectively, "Baron Claims"). Within ten (10) days of the issuance of this Order, the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims shall advise the Receiver in writing (who will then advise the Court) as to whether they will agree to waive their Punitive Claims and accept the Fee Cap Reduction subject to the Exception defined below (the "Waiver"). Claimants of the Former Attorney Claims that have made the Waiver within the aforementioned time period shall receive the aforementioned amount of their Former Attorney Claims detailed in paragraph 25, supra, and subject to the following Exception, shall have waived their respective Punitive Claims and the amounts not being awarded them through the Fee Cap Reduction (and they shall have waived their right to challenge through motion before this Court or through an appeal).

[37.] Through this Order, Baron maintains any and all rights to bring, after the end of the Receivership, the Baron Claims. The Court, however, remains concerned about Baron continuing to be a vexatious litigant. To encourage Baron not to be a vexatious litigant, the Court enters this Exception and orders that the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims, even if they agreed to the Waiver, shall not be deemed to have agreed to the Waiver to the extent they wish to assert Punitive Claims as counterclaims against any subsequent Baron Claims. In other words, if Baron asserts the Baron Claims against any attorney, that attorney may bring his or her own Punitive Claims and/or claims to seek the amount of his or her own Fee Cap Reductions against Baron as Counterclaims.

(Ex. N).

Six days later, Judge Furgeson stayed enforcement of the Fee Order, and the stay was never lifted.¹⁰ (Ex. Q).

Originally, one of the issues in Netsphere appeal was the appeal of the Fee Order; however, it was not ruled on by this Court because the matter was still before the district court on a motion for reconsideration, which was filed by Carrington, Coleman, Sloman & Blumenthal, L.L.P., one of the attorney creditors. Netsphere, 703 F.3d at 305 n. 1; see also Baron v. Schurig, No. 3:13-CV-3461-L, 2014 WL 25519, at *3 (N.D. Tex. Jan. 2, 2014) (further explaining the procedural history of the Fee Order). The district court never entered an order on the motion for reconsideration. Thus, the Fee Order was not only stayed, it was interlocutory in nature. Ultimately, it was vacated by Judge Sam A. Lindsay on January 2, 2014. Baron, 2014 WL 25519, at *15.

Nonetheless, it was this Fee Order which formed the basis of Substantial Contribution Order in the Ondova case. (Defs' First Am. Mot. for Summ. J. Ex. N).

¹⁰ Other orders confirmed that the Fee Order was stayed. For example, on May 24, 2011, Judge Furgeson stated, "Having consulted with the Clerk of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, the Court advises the parties that it is STAYED from taking further action in the various matters involved in the instant appeal." (Ex. O). On June 5, 2011, Judge Furgeson stated, "I failed to mention that I would stay . . . orders concerning fees to be paid to the Baron attorneys pending appeal." (Ex. P).

Arguments & Authorities

The standard for a summary judgment is well established. E.g., Nixon v. Mr. Prop. Mgmt. Co., 690 S.W.2d 546, 548–49 (Tex. 1985). In a traditional motion for summary judgment under Tex. R. Civ. P. 166a:

1. The movant for summary judgment has the burden of showing that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.
2. In deciding whether there is a disputed material fact issue precluding summary judgment, evidence favorable to the non-movant will be taken as true.
3. Every reasonable inference must be indulged in favor of the non-movant and any doubts resolved in its favor.

Id.

Standing on its own, the present motion for summary judgment and its evidence does not meet this exacting standard.

A. The Baron v. Pronske adversary proceeding versus the Pronske Fee Application, a contested matter

The gist of the Defendants' argument is that Baron's claims for affirmative relief should be barred by res judicata because they were not raised as part of Baron's objection to Pronske's fee application in a contested matter in bankruptcy court. Similarly, the Defendants argue that collateral estoppel bars Baron from litigating his claims in this Court due to certain implicit findings the bankruptcy court made in the underlying fee application. These arguments fail to take into account the fundamental differences between an adversary proceeding and a contested matter under bankruptcy law.

Bankruptcy disputes are either contested matters or adversary proceedings. 10 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 9014.01 (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer, eds. 16th ed.). The basic difference between a contested matter and adversary proceeding has been succinctly described by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit as:

Bankruptcy is a unique form of litigation in that each case comprises a series of more or less self-contained episodes that resolve particular disputes at particular times. There are two basic forms of adversary process within a bankruptcy case: “contested matters” and “adversary proceedings.” Counterclaims are compulsory only in “adversary proceedings,” but not in the quick motion-and-hearing style “contested matters.”

D-1 Enter., Inc. v. Commercial State Bank, 864 F.2d 35, 39 (5th Cir. 1989).

1. Adversary proceedings are complete lawsuits with full Constitutional, Due-Process protections for all parties

In further explanation, the adversary proceeding is the type of litigation that is most similar to a civil lawsuit in Texas courts or a civil action in federal courts. They are “separate lawsuits within the context of a particular bankruptcy case and have all the attributes of a lawsuit, including the filing and service of a formal complaint and application, with certain modifications, of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as provided in Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules.” 10 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 7001.01. Adversary proceedings are initiated by a complaint, or as in the this case, a notice of removal following the filing of Plaintiff’s Original Petition in this Court. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001(10).

The types of claims for relief that must be brought as adversary proceedings are expressly listed. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001. During its time in the bankruptcy court, this present case—Baron v. Pronske—was classified as an adversary proceeding. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001(10) (making all cases removed to federal court adversary proceedings).

As stated in the quotation from D-1 Enter., Inc. v. Commercial State Bank, supra, counter-claims are compulsory in adversary proceedings. 864 F.2d at 39. This is because Rule 7013 incorporates, with modifications, Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7013. For all practical respects, “A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party’s claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 13.

Those matters that are not expressly defined as adversary proceedings are classified as contested matters.

2. Contested matters arise in the administration of estates & are designed for expediency

Contested matters comprise the greatest number of disputes arising during a bankruptcy case. They are specifically governed by Rule 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. This rule incorporates by reference, many of the of the procedural rules for adversary proceedings; however, the overall emphasis of a contested matter is the quick resolution of the dispute. See 10 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶¶ 9014.01, 9014.06. For example, contested matters are initiated by the filing of a motion, eliminating the need to serve a summons on the adverse parties. Fed. R. Civ. P. 9014(a). Motions in contested matters are typically served on multiple parties, including, the debtor, the trustee, the office of the United States Trustee, creditor’s committees, all parties in interest requesting notice, and other entities required to be served by any applicable bankruptcy rule, including those parties directly impacted by the relief sought. Loc. Bankr. R. 9007-1(b), available at, http://www.txnb.uscourts.gov/sites/txnb/files/local_rules/TXNB_Local_ Rules_Revised_4.12.12.pdf. Discovery procedure is truncated, where only some of the rules for conducting discovery apply. 10 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY § 9014.06. In the event the matter becomes complex, the bankruptcy court has the discretion to expand which of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as modified by Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7001–7087 should be applied. Id.

Most importantly, Rule 7013 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, which adopts, with modifications, Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, does not apply to contested matters. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014(c) (“Except as otherwise provided in this rule, and unless the court directs otherwise, the following rules shall apply: 7009, 7017, 7021, 7025, 7026, 7028–7037, 7041, 7042, 7052, 7054–7056, 7064, 7069, and 7071.”).

A person seeking relief in bankruptcy court must understand the distinction between an contested matter and an adversary proceeding because the seeking of relief by way of a motion—a contested matter—when relief should have been sought by way of an adversary proceeding may result in the denial or dismissal of the relief sought. E.g., Harber Oil Co., Inc. v. Swinehart (In re Harber Oil Co., Inc.), 12 F.3d 426, 437–40 (5th Cir. 1994).

The Defendants’ fee application was a contested matter. See Osherow v. Ernst & Young, LLP (In re Interlogic Trace, Inc.), 200 F.3d 382, 389 (5th Cir. 2000); cf. Fed. R. Bankr. 7001 (describing which claims for relief must be brought as adversary proceedings).

B. Res Judicata nether operates as a shield or sword in this case

With the “prior litigation” clearly constituting a constested matter where, in the absence of a court order, there is no such thing as a compulsory counterclaim, the Defendants’ arguments that the claims in the present case are barred by res judicata are tenuous at best.

The Defendants are correct about how this Court should consider federal law on res judicata when analyzing whether the prior order of the bankruptcy court should bar Baron’s claims for affirmative relief in this case and whether it the same order entitles the Defendants to a summary judgment on their counterclaims.¹¹ See Super Van Inc. v. City of San Antonio (In re Super Van, Inc.), 92 F.3d 366, 370 (5th Cir. 1996) (res judicata prevents litigation of matters that have been previously litigated or that were never litigated but should have been in a prior lawsuit). Nonetheless, their ultimate reasoning is flawed.

Under federal law, it is well accepted that when a professional employed by a trustee submits a fee application to a bankruptcy court—ordinarily a contested matter—the trustee must assert a malpractice claim in response to the fee application lest the claim be barred by res judicata. This is the law as stated in the cases cited by the Defendants in Paragraph 20 of their Amended Motion. See Frazin v. Haynes & Boone, L.L.P. (In re Frazin), 732 F.3d 313, 321–22 (5th Cir. 2013); Osherow v. Ernst & Young, LLP (In re Interlogic Trace, Inc.), 200 F.3d 382, 386 (5th Cir. 2000); Southmark Corp. v. Coopers & Lybrand (In re Southmark Corp.), 163 F.3d 925, 931–32 (5th Cir. 1999).

A closer examination of these cases is instructive for one small, but extremely important fact—in all of them, the party asserting a malpractice claim failed to lodge an objection to the fee application or otherwise notify the bankruptcy court as to why the professional fees should not be awarded. Frazin, 732 F.3d at 321–22; Interlogic Trace, Inc., 200 F.3d at 386; Southmark Corp., 163 F.3d at 931–32.

In contrast to Southmark Corp., Interlogic Trace, and Frazin, the present case is not about Baron’s failure to assert a “counterclaim” in response to the Defendants’ fee application. Baron’s malpractice claim was pled and was on this Court’s docket and then the bankruptcy court’s docket more than a month before the Defendants’ first attempt to seek fees from the Ondova Estate. How can the Defendants assert that Baron should have brought a counterclaim to his fee application—a contested matter—when the very same issues were already pending before the same bankruptcy judge as an adversary proceeding under the very same bankruptcy case? It defies logic to suggest that the adversary proceeding should have been tried as part of the contested matter.

Therefore, res judicata does not apply in the present case. To show that it should apply, the federal law of res judicata requires:

1. That the parties in both suits were identical;
2. The Prior judgment was entered by a court of competent jurisdiction;
3. The final judgment was entered on the merits; and
4. The same cause of action would be involved in both cases.

Interlogic Trace, Inc., 200 F.3d at 386.

This rule of res judicata also has exceptions.

1. Relief that could be obtained in the contested matter would not be complete

In the context of an contested matter, res judicata does not bar a claim or objection that should have been raised if complete relief could not have been afforded to the objecting party in the contested matter. Eastman Kodak Co. v. Atlanta Retail, Inc. (In re Atlantic Retail, Inc.), 456 F.3d 1277, 1286 (11th Cir. 2006). In the application for fees, the only relief the bankruptcy court could have granted was some award of fees as an administrative priority claim against the Ondova estate, or it could have denied an award of fees in its entirety. Even if Baron had pled a counterclaim for malpractice, the court could not have adjudicated the malpractice claim within the context of that contested matter.¹²

2. The expectations of the parties preclude the application of res judicata

The Court should also factor in the expectations of the parties. That is, based upon the procedural posture of the preexisting adversary proceeding and the separate contested matter, should the litigants have expected to prosecute the malpractice claims as part of the fee application. See Iannochino v. Rodolakis (In re Iannochino), 242 F.3d 36, 48 (1st Cir. 2001) (discussing the litigants expectations regarding trying a fee application and malpractice claim as a single unit).

In this case, Baron’s malpractice claims and the Defendant’s counterclaims were pending in Adversary Proceeding 10-03281. While the adversary proceeding was certainly related to the Ondova bankruptcy, it was a separately docketed lawsuit where the issues were distinct from the issues in the Ondova bankruptcy and where the procedural rules—the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure with modifications tailored for litigation in the bankruptcy courts—were different from the procedural rules governing bankruptcy cases where claims are made against bankruptcy estates, where bankruptcy estates are administered, and where plans of reorganization are consummated. Due to the injunction issued by the federal district court, the bankruptcy court abated Adversary Proceeding 10-03281 on November 3, 2010. (Ex. C). The abatement was extended “indefinitely” on January 8, 2012, and the abatement was never lifted before the remand to this ¹² Atlantic Retail suggests that an adversary proceeding should be filed when there is a malpractice claim that should be brought to the bankruptcy court’s attention. 456 F.3d at 1286. In the present case, Adversary Proceeding 10-03281 was already on file. (Ex. C).

Court. (Ex. C). The Defendants should not be able to claim that they liquidated their claims against Baron through a hearing to prove a Substantial Contribution Claim against the Ondova Estate when the separate adversary proceeding, presided over by the same court, abated the adversary proceeding. The bankruptcy court properly recognized this when it determined it lacked subject matter jurisdiction to liquidate the Defendants' claims against Baron at the Substantial Contribution hearing in the Ondova bankruptcy.¹³ (Ex. D).

3. The bankruptcy court further lacked jurisdiction over the counterclaims against Baron

Finally, res judicata cannot be applied due to the bankruptcy court's recognition that it lacked jurisdiction over the counterclaims asserted against Baron in the adversary proceeding. When it finally remanded the adversary proceeding to this Court, the bankruptcy court determined that the Defendants' claims against Baron in Adversary Proceeding 10-03281, much less in any claim related to a Substantial Contribution Claim made against the Ondova Estate, were so unrelated to the Ondova bankruptcy that it lacked subject matter jurisdiction.¹⁴ The court held, in part:

The Court finds good cause at this juncture of the adversary proceeding to grant the motion [to remand]. The cause being that circumstances have significantly changed since the adversary proceeding was removed, or since the action was removed, such that subject matter jurisdiction is now questionable, if not nonexistent with regard to relatedness to the Ondova bankruptcy case. Specifically, the Court has allowed the substantial contribution claim in this case and the Court is not convinced that the fact that there might be a credit on it if there are payments

¹³ The bankruptcy court actually did not go far enough. It should have recognized the fact that there was a malpractice claim and converted the contested matter into an adversary proceeding. See Costa v. Marotta, Gund, Budd & Dzera, LLC, 281 Fed.Appx. 5, 6 (1st Cir. 2008). Then the two adversary proceedings could have been consolidated and tried together.

by Jeff Baron on counterclaims Mr. Pronske asserts. The fact that the substantial contribution claim might be reduced and entitled to a smaller dividend from the Ondova trustee, to me, is not enough of a nexus for bankruptcy subject matter jurisdiction to still exist. Moreover, it would appear that state law issues dominate, and it is in the interest of comity for state law and state court for this Court to remand.

(Ex. D).

Even if the Substantial Contribution Award can be construed to be apply to the Defendants' claims against Baron, the fact that the bankruptcy court determined it lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the claims means that such application is void. E.g., Chambers v. Armontrout, 16 F.3d 257, 260 (8th Cir. 1994) (judgments where the court lacks subject matter jurisdiction are void); see also ; see also Omega Consulting v. Raymond Intern. Co., No. H-09-0976, 2010 WL 3025493, at *3 (S.D. Tex. Jul. 29, 2010) (interlocutory orders entered by court without subject matter jurisdiction are void); McAdams v. Medtronic, Inc., No. H-10-831, 2010 WL 2710393, at *4 (S.D. Tex. Jul. 7, 2010) (interlocutory orders entered by court without subject matter jurisdiction are void); see also CHARLES ALAN WRIGHT, ET AL., FEDERAL PRACTICE & PROCEDURE § 2695 (3d ed. 1998). Texas law recognizes the same principle that interlocutory orders entered during the course of a case are void when the final judgment is void for a lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Ruffier v. Ruffier, 190 S.W.3d 884, 888, 890 (Tex.App.—El Paso 2006, no pet.); see also Browning v. Prostok, 165 S.W.3d 336, 346 (Tex. 2005).

C. Collateral Estoppel does not prohibit the Court's inquiry into the pled causes of action in this case

Although there are no material differences between Texas and federal law concerning collateral estoppel, federal common law governs the claim-preclusive effect of federal court judgments. See Semtek Int'l Inc. v. Lockheed Martin Corp., 531 U.S. 497, 508 (2001).¹⁵ Under federal law, four conditions must be met before collateral estoppel may be applied to bar relitigation of an issue previously decided by a court with subject matter jurisdiction:

1. The issue under consideration is identical to that litigated in the prior action;
2. The issue was fully and vigorously litigated in the prior action;
3. The issue was necessary to support the judgment in the prior case; and
4. There is no special circumstance that would make it unfair to apply the doctrine.

Winters v. Diamond Shamrock Chem. Co., 149 F.3d 387, 391 (5th Cir. 1998).

Moreover, under federal law, collateral estoppel is improper when there is an absence of detailed findings of fact and conclusions of law from the prior proceeding. In re Ryan, 408 B.R. 143, 166 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 2009).

While Texas and federal collateral estoppel doctrines are similar, the last element that considers special circumstances is an element not part of the Texas body of law on collateral estoppel. Compare Winters, 149 F.3d at 391 (setting forth the elements of collateral estoppel under federal law), with Gupta v. Eastern Idaho Tumor Institute, Inc. (In re Gupta), 394 F.3d 347, 350 n. 4 (5th Cir. 2004) (setting forth the elements of collateral estoppel under Texas law) and Weaver & Tidwell, L.L.P. v. Guarantee Co. of N. Am. USA, 427 S.W.3d 559, 573–74 (Tex.App.—Dallas 2014, pet. filed) (citing Sysco Food Servs., Inc. v. Trapnell, 890 S.W.2d 796, 801 (Tex. 1994)).

¹⁵ The Texas Supreme Court has never stated whether state or federal collateral estoppel law governs the preclusive effect of a prior federal court judgment on a subsequent state court case under the rationale that the same result would be reached under either state of federal law. Johnson & Higgins of Texas, Inc. v. Kenneco Energy, Inc., 962 S.W.2d 507, 519 n. 7 (Tex. 1998).

1. The issues in this case are not identical to those litigated when the Defendants litigated their claim for an administrative priority claim against the Ondova Bankruptcy Estate due to their alleged substantial contribution to the Estate during the Ondova bankruptcy case

Collateral estoppel relieves a litigant of having to relitigate an issue in a subsequent lawsuit that has already been fully and fairly litigated that was essential to the judgment in the prior litigation. Benson v. Wanda Petroleum Co., 468 S.W.2d 361, 362 (Tex. 1971). The facts in this case preclude affording the Defendants a summary judgment, on the basis of collateral estoppel, for four reasons:

1. The relevant “ultimate fact issue” that was “actually litigated” is different from the fact issues to be determined in this case.
2. The issues in the Substantial Contribution hearing were not fully and fairly litigated.
3. The issues in this case—whether Baron owes the Defendants any fees and whether the Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to Baron or committed malpractice—were essential to the bankruptcy court’s determination of a substantial contribution claim against the Ondova Estate.
4. The parties in the Ondova bankruptcy hearing were different from the parties in the present action.

This case concerns Baron’s claims of breach fiduciary duty, negligent misrepresentation, malpractice, disgorgement, unreasonableness, and unconscionability of fees against the Defendants, and it concerns the Defendants’ claims for fees against Baron. None of these issues were litigated in the Ondova bankruptcy where the issue litigated was whether the Defendants should be entitled to an administrative priority claim against the Ondova Estate for rendering a substantial contribution to the Ondova Estate during the course of Ondova’s bankruptcy case. Baron was not a party or debtor in the Ondova bankruptcy.¹⁶ Moreover, these issues were never litigated in Adversary Proceeding 10-03281.

a. The “ultimate fact issue” litigated was Defendant’s claim against the Ondova Estate

The ultimate fact issue that was actually litigated in the Ondova bankruptcy was the Defendants’ claims against the Ondova Bankruptcy Estate. The Defendants’ claim for an administrative priority based on their alleged substantial contribution to the Ondova Estate did not involve any claim against Baron. Therefore, the relevant question for collateral estoppel purposes is whether the actual litigation of the “substantial contribution issue” against the Ondova Estate estops Baron from litigating his claims for breach of fiduciary duty, negligent misrepresentation, malpractice, disgorgement, unreasonableness, and unconscionability, and whether the fee award against Ondova can be used offensively to collaterally estop arguments from Baron that he does not owe these fees

b. Non-identical fact issues prevent the application of collateral estoppel

As set forth above, the ultimate issue that was before the bankruptcy court in the Ondova case was the Defendants’ Second Amended Application of Pronske & Patel, P.C. For Payment of Fees as an Administrative Expense for a Substantial Contribution to the Estate.

Under bankruptcy law, trustees and professionals retained by them are allowed administrative priority claims against the bankruptcy estate as compensation for their services. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 503(b), 507(a)(2) (defining administrative priority claims and order of payment). Holders of administrative priority claims receive special treatment. For example in a Chapter 11 case such as the Ondova case, no plan of reorganization may even be confirmed unless it provides that holders of administrative priority claims will receive, on the effective date¹⁷ of the plan, cash in an amount equal to the amount of their allowed claims. 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9). If a Chapter 11 debtor wishes to do anything different, each such claimant must give their consent. Id.

¹⁶ As a party in interest, similarly situated to other creditors or equity holders, Baron was permitted to make an objection to the Defendants’ Substantial Contribution Claims against the Ondova Estate. However, he was not permitted to make any claims of his own against any entity other than the Ondova Estate, nor were the Defendants permitted to make any claims against Baron in the Ondova bankruptcy. Such claims could only be maintained in the separately docketed Adversary Proceeding 10-03281.

Sometimes other parties, such as creditors, perform a service during the bankruptcy case that materially aids the trustee and confers substantially greater value to the bankruptcy estate. When such a service is not duplicative of the work of the trustee or the professionals retained by the trustee, such party may be awarded an administrative priority claim for their substantial contribution to the estate. While Baron disagrees with the Substantial Contribution Award in the Ondova case,¹⁸ the bankruptcy court believed that the Defendants rendered such a service.

A bankruptcy court may award the actual, necessary expenses incurred by a creditor, including his attorney's fees, when the creditor demonstrates he has made a substantial contribution to a bankruptcy estate. Pierson & Gaylen v. Creel & Atwood (In re Consolidated Bancshares), 785 F.2d 1249, 1252 (5th Cir. 1986). These claims are authorized by the Bankruptcy Code for:

1. "the actual, necessary expenses, other than compensation and reimbursement specified in paragraph (4) of this subsection, incurred by . . . a creditor . . . in making a substantial contribution in a case under chapter . . . 11 of [the Bankruptcy Code]." 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(3)(D).
2. "reasonable compensation for professional services rendered by an attorney . . . of an entity whose expense is allowable under subparagraph . . .

¹⁷ The term "effective date" is not defined by the Bankruptcy Code. In re Good, 428 B.R. 235, 244 (Bankr.E.D.Tex. 2010). In practice, this usually means that date after confirmation of the plan when appeals may no longer be perfected and an appellant has had an opportunity to obtain a stay pending appeal. See id.; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3020(e).

(D) . . . of paragraph (3) of this subsection, based on the time, nature, the extent, and the value of such services, and the cost of comparable services other than in a case under this title, and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses incurred by such attorney or accountant.” Id. § 503(b)(4).

Substantial contribution claims are allowed in order to “promote meaningful creditor participation in the reorganization process.” Consolidated Bancshares, 785 F.2d at 1253. Services that substantially contribute to a case are those which “‘foster and enhance rather than retard or interrupt the progress of reorganization.’” In re White Motor Credit Corp., 50 B.R. 885, 892 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1985). The factors considered by bankruptcy courts to determine whether an applicant has made a substantial contribution include:

1. “whether the services were provided to benefit the estate itself or all of the parties in the bankruptcy case;”
2. “whether the services conferred a direct, significant and demonstrably positive benefit upon the estate;” and
3. “whether the services were duplicative of services performed by others.”

In re Best Prods. Co., Inc., 173 B.R. 862, 865 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1994); In re Jensen-Farley Pictures, Inc., 47 B.R. 557, 569 (Bankr. D. Utah 1985).

For purposes of the collateral estoppel issues—more precisely, the lack of thereof—that this Court must examine, in order to prove a claim for substantial contribution to the Ondova Estate, the Defendants had to show they:

1. Contributed to the proper administration of the Ondova bankruptcy case as a whole
2. Provide an actual, tangible benefit to the Ondova Estate, and
3. Demonstrate a direct, causal connection between their actions and the benefit received by the Ondova Estate.

See In re Bayou Group, LLC, 431 B.R. 549, 561 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 2010).

These elements of a particular administrative priority claim against the Ondova Estate are vastly different from the issues in the present case, which involve claims for unconscionable fees, failure to agree upon the terms in advance, failure to properly handle of legal representation, full disgorgement of fees, and negligent misrepresentation as well as the Defendants' counter claims seeking to collect on an invoice for legal services.

Under Texas law, collateral estoppel “precludes the relitigation of identical issues of facts or law that were actually litigated and essential to the judgment in a prior suit.” Tucker v. Texas Employers Ins. Ass’n, 768 S.W.2d 742, 744 (Tex.App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1988, writ denied) (emphasis added); see also Van Dyke v. Boswell, O’Toole, Davis & Pickering, 697 S.W.2d 381, 384 (Tex. 1985). “Once an actually litigated and essential issue is determined, that issue is conclusive in a subsequent action between the same parties.” Van Dyke, 697 S.W.2d at 384. Issues that are not identical in a previous suit to those presented in the subsequent suit are not collaterally estopped. See Barnes v. United Parcel Service, Inc., 395 S.W.3d 165, 169 (Tex.App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 2012, pet. denied).

In determining this issue, the courts look to the elements of the claims in deciding whether the issues are identical. Quanaim v. Frasco Restaurant & Catering, 17 S.W.3d 30, 45 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2000, pet. denied). For example, in Barnes, the Department of Workers Compensation (“DWC”) determined that the decedent’s collateral statutory heirs and spouse were entitled to workers’ compensation benefits on the grounds that the decedent’s work was not a substantial contributing factor in his death. In the subsequent lawsuit involving claims for gross negligence, collateral estoppel did not apply. The issue in Barnes was whether the underlying issues decided by the DWC hearing officer were identical to the causation issues to be decided in the subsequent lawsuit litigation. In holding that collateral estoppel did not apply, the Court found there was no overlap in the evidence that had to be proved in the two cases; therefore, collateral estoppel could not have been applied in the subsequent lawsuit.

Just like Barnes, the facts relevant to establishing substantial contribution are not identical to any of the causes of action Baron has pled in this case. Further, the parties in the two actions are different. This Court, therefore, must deny the Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment because collateral estoppel cannot be applied.

2. The issues in this case were not fully litigated when the Defendants litigated their claim for an administrative priority claim against the Ondova Bankruptcy Estate due to their alleged substantial contribution to the Estate during the Ondova bankruptcy case

As previously stated, Pronske must establish that the facts sought to be litigated in the second action were fully and fairly litigated in the prior action to successfully assert collateral estoppel. Bonniwell v. Beech Aircraft Corp., 663 S.W.2d 816, 818 (Tex. 1984) (applying Texas law on collateral estoppel); see also Allen v. McCurry, 449 U.S. 90, 94–95 (1980) (applying substantially similar federal law on collateral estoppel).

Collateral estoppel relieves a litigant of having to relitigate an issue in a subsequent lawsuit that has already been fully and fairly litigated that was essential to the judgment in the prior litigation. Benson v. Wanda Petroleum Co., 468 S.W.2d 361, 362 (Tex.1971). The facts and allegations in this case preclude affording Pronske that relief for summary judgment for three reasons. First, the relevant “ultimate fact issue” that was “actually litigated” is different from the fact issues to be decided in this case. Second, the issues in the substantial contribution hearing were not fairly and fully litigated. Third, Pronske cannot show that the issues in this case (whether Baron owed Pronske any fees or whether Pronske breached his fiduciary duties to Baron or was negligent in his representation of Baron) were essential to the judgment in the Bankruptcy Court action. Fourth, and perhaps most importantly, the parties in the bankruptcy court action were different from the parties in this action.

3. None of the issues in this case were necessary to support the Bankruptcy Courts Substantial Contribution Order

Whether applying federal law or Texas law, collateral estoppel does not be applied when an issue in the present case was unessential to the prior judgment or order. Allen v. McCurry, 449 U.S. 90, 94–95 (1980) (federal collateral estoppel law); Bonniwell v. Beech Aircraft Corp., 663 S.W.2d 816, 818 (Tex. 1984) (Texas collateral estoppel law). The determination of any factual issue in the present case, in particular the amount of fees allegedly due by Baron to any of the Defendants, is completely unessential to a contested matter where the Defendants sought an administrative priority claim against the Ondova Bankruptcy Estate for services that rendered a substantial benefit to Ondova's Bankruptcy Estate during its bankruptcy case.

In analyzing whether the matters in the present case were essential to the Ondova bankruptcy, Quanaim v. Frasco Restaurant & Catering provides guidance. 17 S.W.3d 30 (Tex.App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2000, no pet.). In Quanaim, the first lawsuit was a federal lawsuit against CTF Hotel Holdings, Inc. for age discrimination and wrongful termination as a result of seeking worker's compensation benefits. Id. at 45. The second lawsuit was brought in state court for the personal injuries—negligence—that were addressed as part of the federal court lawsuit. Id. at 34. The Court determined that there was no evidence showing that the negligence of Frasco Restaurant & Catering was an essential element of any issues surrounding the negligence of Quanaim's former employer, CTF Hotel Holdings, Inc., in the prior, federal lawsuit. Id. at 46; see also In re

Ryan, 408 B.R. at 166 (in applying federal law an absence of detailed findings of fact and conclusions of law bars collateral estoppel).

In the Ondova bankruptcy, no issue in this present case was an essential element to prove an administrative claim for substantial contribution to the Ondova bankruptcy estate. Moreover, the absence of any findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting the Defendant's Substantial Contribution Award are fatal to any claim that collateral estoppel allegedly bars litigation regarding the fees allegedly due to the Defendants in the present case. It certainly was in Quanaim. Id.

Without any findings of fact and conclusions of law, this Court is left with the impossible task of determining what facts the bankruptcy court considered essential to the Substantial Contribution Award. This Court should make such assumptions when the Defendants have not—and cannot—demonstrate it was an essential element.

4. Special circumstances limit the application of collateral estoppel

If applying the federal law of collateral estoppel to the order of the bankruptcy court, special circumstances preclude summary judgment. See Winters, 149 F.3d at 391. Where a claimant is using collateral estoppel in an offensive manner, as in the present case, special circumstances that prevent the application of collateral estoppel include:

1. When the claimant could have joined the previous action but chose to “wait and see” whether a favorable judgment would be entered.
2. Whether the defendant had the incentive to defend vigorously.

Parklane Hosiery Co., Inc. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322, 330–31 (1979).

As stated above, the Defendants did not seek to lift the abatement of Adversary Proceeding 10-03182 when it sought its administrative claim against the Ondova Bankruptcy Estate. Thus, the Defendants purposefully chose to “wait and see” if they got a favorable outcome from the bankruptcy court in a contested matter. That their only opposition was from Baron, who was a party in interest, and the Ondova Trustee, who was allied with the Defendants, did not contest the Defendants' application is irrelevant. Baron was contesting the application for an administrative priority claim as a party-in-interest; he was not participating in the hearing as a defendant in the abated adversary proceeding.

D. The Defendants are not entitled to summary judgment on their counterclaims

For the same reasons described above, the Court cannot grant a summary judgment on the Defendants' counterclaims under the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel as suggested in their Motion.

1. The summary judgment evidence does not prove a breach of contract

To prove a cause of action for breach of contract, the Defendants must prove:

1. There is a valid and enforceable contract;
2. The Defendants are the proper parties to sue for breach of contract;
3. The Defendants performed, tendered performance, or were excused from performing their contractual obligations;
4. The Plaintiff breached the contract; and
5. The breach caused the Defendants to incur damages.

Marquis Acquisitions, Inc. v. Steadfast Ins., 409 S.W.3d 808, 813 (Tex.App.—Dallas 2013, no pet.); Mandell & Hamman Oil & Ref. Co., 822 S.W.2d 153, 161 (Tex.App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1991, writ denied).

Due to their prior material breach, however, the Defendants cannot recover for breach of contract. As shown in Exhibit A, effective on or about August 31, 2009, the Defendants were retained to represent Baron in connection with matters related to the Ondova Limited Company in its bankruptcy case. The terms of such engagement were negotiated among PG&K, Baron, and AsiaTrust Limited, which at the time was acting as the trustee of The Village Trust (“AsiaTrust”). All payments to the Defendants were to be made by or through AsiaTrust. The Defendants never looked to Baron for payments of their fees Firm’s fees. The Defendants said their fee would be $75,000.00, and told Baron that AsiaTrust would be required to pay this before they commenced representation.

During the first six months of the representation, Pronske, as the attorney in charge, failed to perform the essential task for which the Defendants were engaged—to prepare, file and seek confirmation of a plan of reorganization for Ondova, so that Ondova could successfully emerge from Chapter 11 bankruptcy. At that time Baron and AsiaTrust had the funds available to successfully confirm a plan of reorganization.

In February 2010, having failed to seized the opportunity to file, prosecute and confirm a plan of reorganization sponsored by Baron, the Defendants compromised Baron’s legal position and were forced to negotiate a global settlement agreement with all parties at great expense.

2. The summary judgment evidence does not prove the entitlement to a recovery under quantum meruit

To prove a cause of action for quantum meruit, the Defendants must prove:

1. The Defendants provided valuable services;
2. The services were provided for the Plaintiff;
3. The Plaintiff accepted the services; and
4. The Plaintiff had reasonable notice that the Defendant expected compensation for the services or materials.

Heldenfels Bros. v. City of Corpus Christi, 832 S.W.2d 39, 41 (Tex. 1992).

For the same reasons as specified in the previous section, the Defendants should not recover for a quantum meruit claim. Even if equity demands that they recover something, the summary judgment evidence is completely lacking, if a quantum meruit claim is even the proper subject of a motion for summary judgment.

3. The summary judgment evidence does not prove a cause of action for theft of services

To prove a cause of action for theft of services, the Defendants must prove:

1. The Defendants provided a service to the Plaintiff;
2. The Plaintiff knew the service was provided for compensation;
3. The Plaintiff intended to avoid payment by:
 - a. Intentionally or knowingly securing the performance of the service by deception, threat, or false token;
 - b. Intentionally or knowingly diverted the Defendant's service, to which the Plaintiff was not entitled but over which he had control, to the Plaintiff's own benefit or to the benefit of another person not entitled to it;
 - c. Intentionally or knowingly securing the performance of a service by agreeing to provide compensation and, after the service was rendered, failing to make payment after receiving notice demanding payment.
4. The Defendants sustained damages as a result of the theft.

TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 134.005(a); TEX. PENAL CODE § 31.04(a).

Any deception to obtain the allegedly stolen service must occur before the service is rendered. Daugherty v. State, 387 S.W.3d 6544, 659 (Tex.Crim.App. 2013). There is no summary judgment evidence supporting that such deception occurred before any services were rendered. In fact, the evidence shows the opposite. Baron paid a $75,000 to Pronske & Patel before they started rendering services.¹⁹ This was pursuant to an oral agreement negotiated between Elizabeth Schurig, one of Baron's former attorneys, and Pronske.

4. The summary judgment does not prove a cause of action for fraud

To prove a cause of action for fraud, the Defendants must prove:

1. The Plaintiff made a representation to the Defendants;
2. The representation was material;
3. The representation was false;
4. When the representation was made, the Plaintiff knew it was false or it was made recklessly, as a positive assertion and without knowledge of its truth;
5. The Plaintiff made the representation with the intent that the Defendant act on it;
6. The Defendant relied on the representation; and
7. The representation caused the Defendants' damages.

Italian Cowboy Partners v. Prudential Ins., 342 S.W.3d 323, 337 (Tex. 2011).

Here, the only evidence is a conclusory affidavit which the Court should not admit into evidence. Outside of this, there is no evidence on file that indicates that the alleged representations were made when Baron and his then counsel, Elizabeth Schurig, negotiated the oral fee agreement. There is no evidence before the Court that Baron did not intend to pay for the legal services as originally negotiated. See Aquaplex, Inc. v. Rancho La Valencia, Inc., 297 S.W.3d 768, 774 (Tex. 2009). Moreover, because a $75,000 fee was paid before the Defendants began their representation, intent cannot be inferred. Reyna v. Firs Nat'l Bank, 55 S.W.3d 58, 68 (Tex.App.—

¹⁹ There is a material dispute as to whether this payment was for a flat fee or was just a retainer. That must be resolved by the trier of fact.

Corpus Christi 2001, no pet.). Therefore, the Defendants failed in not showing any proof of intent.

Finally, the Defendants fail to show that, any reliance they might have had was justifiable under the circumstances. See O'Brien v. Daboval, 388 S.W.3d 826, 842–43 (Tex.App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 2012, no pet.).

5. There is no summary judgment evidence regarding attorneys' fees

From the outset, the Defendants cannot recover attorney's fees as pro se litigants, just because they hold a law license. In Jackson v. State Office of Administrative Hearings, the Texas Supreme Court adopted the position of the majority of the federal Circuit Courts that do not allow recoveries of attorneys' fees to pro se attorney litigants. 351 S.W.3d 290, 300 (Tex. 2011).

Even if the Court finds Jackson to not apply to entities, such as Pronske, Goolsby & Kathman, P.C., regardless of the theory allegedly entitling the Defendants to an award of attorneys' fees, they have filed no evidence showing their entitlement to an award of attorneys' fees related to any of their counterclaims for which exemplary damages are recoverable. Moreover, even if the Court grants summary judgment as to Baron's claim for theft under Chapter 38 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, there is no competent summary evidence before the Court.

It is fundamental that an award of attorneys' fees requires proof of necessity and reasonableness. Arthur Andersen & Co. v. Perry Equip. Corp., 945 S.W.2d 812, 818–19 (Tex. 1997). The statute under which the Defendants claim entitles them to attorneys' fees under as a result of their defense of Baron's DTPA claim allegedly brought in bad faith requires evidence of both reasonableness and necessity.²⁰ TEX. BUS. & COM. CODE § 17.51(c). Likewise, if the Defendants were to be prevailing parties in their counterclaim for theft of services, they would have to prove their fees are both reasonable and necessary. Id. § 134.005(b).

The only evidentiary shortcuts that may be taken when proving attorneys' fees is when a successful claimant is entitled to recover "reasonable attorney's fees" Chapter 38 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code. See id. § 38.001 (omitting necessity element). While Chapter 38 allows for certain presumptions and in regards to reasonableness, the Defendants' summary judgment evidence fails to satisfy even these more relaxed standards. While the Court may take judicial notice of the "usual and customary attorney's fees and of the contents of the case file without receiving further evidence," the Defendants must still show evidence of the amount of he fees and claim an amount that is "usual and necessary." Id. §§ 38.003, 38.004 (judicial notice & presumptions of reasonableness of "usual and customary" fees). They have failed to do this. Therefore, the Court should not be allowed independently make this assessment, especially by summary judgment.

6. There is no summary judgment evidence tending to prove Defendants' entitlement to exemplary damages

The Defendants have filed no evidence showing they are entitled to an award of exemplary damages as related to any of their counterclaims for which exemplary damages is an available remedy. The Defendants have presented no evidence evidencing fraud, malice, or gross negligence. See TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 41.003(a). Nor have they satisfied any showing with clear and convincing evidence. See id.

²⁰ It also requires a finding that the DTPA claim was "groundless in fact or law or brought in bad faith, or brought for the purposes of harassment." Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 17.50(c). Asking the Court to imply such facts without any summary judgment evidence is improper.

The real problem inherent with exemplary damages on summary judgment is the fact that the Court is required to engage in fact finding regarding what amount of exemplary damages, if any, would be proper. See id. § 41.011 (“In determining the amount of exemplary damages, the trier of fact shall consider evidence”). To assess an amount of exemplary damages, the Court cannot rely upon summary judgment evidence alone, but must exercise its own judgment as to:

1. the nature of the wrong;
2. the character of the conduct involved;
3. the degree of culpability of the wrongdoer;
4. the situation and sensibilities of the parties concerned;
5. the extent to which such conduct offends a public sense of justice and propriety; and
6. the net worth of the defendant.

Id.

E. The Court cannot grant summary judgment on Baron’s claims for malicious prosecution or violations of the Texas Debt Collection Act

As shown above, the Defendants are not entitled to a summary judgment as to the other claims pled by Baron on the grounds of res judicata or collateral estoppel alone. Additionally, they are not entitled to a summary judgment for the reasons shown herein.

1. Malicious prosecution

The Defendants’ assertion that Baron’s claim for malicious prosecution simply ignores Texas law, and the Court should therefore deny the Defendants’ Motion.

In Paragraph 35 of their Motion, the Defendants cite a federal district court in Kansas and the New Hampshire Supreme Court for the proposition that Section 303(i) of the Bankruptcy Code preempts a state law claim for malicious prosecution. Glannon v. Garrett & Assocs., Inc., 261 B.R. 259, 265 (D. Kan. 2001); Mason v. Smith, 672 A.2d 705, 706–07 (N.H. 1996). While the Defendants understandably would support the position of these courts, it is the exact opposite of the position taken by the Texas Supreme Court, where it held:

Congress did not specifically express an intent to preempt Fuqua’s [malicious prosecution] claim, and it did not create a statutory scheme that impliedly requires as much. Allowing Fuqua’s claim to proceed in Texas courts neither conflicts with the federal laws that were expressed, nor does it hinder the advancement of the policies embodied therein. Because Congress was silent on the matter, we see no reason to discontinue state law’s historic function of providing common law remedies for misconduct in federal courts.

Graber v. Fuqua, 279 S.W.3d 608, 620 (Tex. 2009).

2. Texas Debt Collection Act

Similarly, the Defendants’ assertion that Baron cannot maintain a cause of action for violations of the Texas Debt Collection Act ignores Texas law regarding who can be liable for such violations. “An actor is not excused from following the provisions of the [Texas Debt Collection] Act because the debt is owed directly to the actor. Monroe v. Frank, 936 S.W.2d 654, 659–60 (Tex.App.—Dallas 1996, writ dismiss’d w.o.j.) (suit against bail bondsman for under Texas Debt Collection Act as then codified under Tex. Rev. Civ. Stat. art. 5069-11.01).

Moreover, the Defendants cannot argue that just because any debt Baron may have is related to services they performed in the Ondova bankruptcy, that this is somehow a debt not covered by the Texas Debt Collection Act, which defines “consumer debt” as “an obligation, or an alleged obligation, primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.” Tex. Fin. Code § 392.001(2) (emphasis added).

3. Deceptive Trade Practices Act

The Defendants are not entitled to summary judgment on Baron's DTPA claim. The Defendants' acts that do not involve the rendition of professional services and advice are subject to DTPA claims. See Latham v. Castillo, 972 S.W.2d 66, 68 n. 2 (Tex. 1998); Retherford v. Castro, 378 S.W.3d 29, 33 (Tex.App.—Waco 2012, pet. denied); Head v. U.S. Inspect DFW, Inc., 159 S.W.3d 731, 738 & n. 4 (Tex.App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.). This is particularly true of the Defendants' acts in violation of the Texas Debt Collection Act, which provides for DTPA liability. Tex. Fin. Code § 392.404.

V.

Conclusion

As shown above, the Court should deny the Motion for Summary Judgment because:

1. The Defendants have failed to file competent summary judgment evidence, and the Court should not admit the same;
2. The Defendants cannot prevail show that Baron's claims are barred by res judicata or collateral estoppel, nor are the counterclaims entitled to a summary judgment on the same grounds; and
3. There is no summary judgment evidence even purporting to liquidate any amount of damages or attorneys' fees.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Jeffrey Baron respectfully requests that the Court deny Defendants' First Amended Motion for Summary Judgment and grant him all such further relief which is just.

AFFIDAVIT OF JEFFREY BARON

STATE OF TEXAS §
COUNTY OF DALLAS §

ON THIS DAY, BEFORE ME, THE UNDERSIGNED AUTHORITY, Jeffrey Baron personally appeared , and after I administered an oath to him, he stated upon his oath:

1. My name is Jeffrey Baron. I am over the age of eighteen and have never been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude. I am the Plaintiff and Counter-Defendant in the lawsuit in which this Affidavit is offered as evidence.
2. Effective on or about August 31, 2009, Pronske, Goolsby & Kathman, P.C. f/k/a Pronske & Patel, P.C. ("PG&K") was retained to represent me in connection with matters related to the Ondova Limited Company in its bankruptcy case pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas. The terms of such engagement were negotiated among PG&K and myself, along with a third party, AsiaTrust Limited, which at the time was acting as the trustee of The Village Trust ("AsiaTrust"). The agreement, which was never reduced to writing, required all payments to PG&K to be made by or through AsiaTrust. Pronske and PG&K failed to prepare or execute a written engagement letter. No oral or written agreement exists between PG&K and I for the payment of PG&K's fees and expenses. PG&K's engagement required the firm to represent my interests in the Ondova Chapter 11 Case, and file, prosecute and confirm a Creditor's Plan of Reorganization and provide all bankruptcy related legal work necessary to effectuate the emergence of Ondova from bankruptcy and returned back to my control. Pronske and PG&K never followed through on these tasks.

3. PG&K and Pronske never looked to me for payments of the Firm's fees for services rendered and expenses incurred, until just before he suddenly abandoned my case and took legal action against me. Pronske informed me and AsiaTrust that the fee for the representation to accomplish my goals would be $75,000.00, and told me and AsiaTrust that he required all fees for this engagement to be paid up front. Before commencing the representation, AsiaTrust caused $75,000.00 to be deposited with PG&K to cover the legal fees and expenses for the representation.
4. Pronske and PG&K commenced the representation, but failed to prepare an engagement letter setting forth the terms of the engagement. Pronske and PG&K also failed to prepare any progress billing statements to Baron for over 10 months indicating that the fee paid was not a flat fee.
5. Until July 2010, I believed that PG&K's fee for such services rendered would be $75,000, and that no additional fees would be incurred unless PG&K undertook additional matters for me, before which time a modified fee arrangement would be negotiated among PG&K, AsiaTrust and me prior to Pronske or PG&K undertaking such matters.
6. Pronske and PG&K did not prepare any progress billing statements for over 10 months. To my knowledge, Pronske and PG&K never provided AsiaTrust with any analysis of the transactions in his trust account where the $75,000 was allegedly deposited. I certainly never received any evidence of same, except for a statement prepared by Pronske some 10 months later..
7. During the first six months of the representation, Pronske, as the attorney in charge, failed to perform the essential task for which PG&K was engaged—to prepare, file and seek confirmation of a plan of reorganization for Ondova, so that Ondova could successfully emerge from Chapter 11 bankruptcy. At that time I and AsiaTrust had the funds available to successfully confirm a plan of reorganization.
8. In February 2010, having failed to seized the opportunity to file, prosecute and confirm a plan of reorganization sponsored by me, Pronske, having compromised his my legal position by his inaction, was forced to negotiate a global settlement agreement with all parties.
9. During the July 22, 2010 hearing before Judge Jernigan, Pronske, still representing me, left the court room in the middle of the proceeding and failed to return. In Pronske's absence, Judge Jernigan issued three orders commanding my compliance—creating exigent circumstances for me—requiring me to provide two affidavits by July 27, 2010, regarding my hospitalization on July 22, 2010, and regarding certain complex disputed facts regarding a trust, and requiring me to execute by July 28, 2010, an extraordinarily complex settlement agreement consisting of approximately 140 pages and millions of dollars of interests at stake.

10. I desperately needed Pronske's services to enable me to comply with these Orders, which included drafting, reviewing documents as well as negotiating the final form of affidavits and settlement agreements.
11. The following day, July 23, 2010, Pronske and PG&K sent an invoice to me (the very first invoice ever provided by PG&K during the engagement) in the amount of $292,452.70, demanding immediate payment from me, notwithstanding that PG&K had agreed to look to AsiaTrust for payment. I was shocked. I promptly called Pronske by phone to discuss the Orders and the invoice. During that conversation, Pronske's demeanor was incredibly hostile and uncompromising. He demanded immediate payment of a substantial portion of PG&K's invoice and threatened that "there would be dire consequences" if I did not meet his inflexible demand "within the next few days."
12. On or about July 27, 2010, I had another telephone conversation with Pronske in which I explained that he wished to have an amicable resolution of the invoice sent by PG&K, and attempted to convince Pronske to assist me in fulfilling the obligations imposed by Judge Jernigan relating to the three orders. Pronske again rebuffed my requests and attempted reconciliation during this call and adamantly repeated his demand for immediate payment and threats of imminent harm, declaring in an uncompromising and hostile manner that he would refuse to have any further discussions with me (despite the exigent circumstances presented by the Court's orders), he stated that PG&K's demand for immediate payment was non-negotiable, and a precondition to the firm doing any further representation.
13. A few hours after the July 27 phone conversation, Pronske sent an email notification to me (two business days after sending his invoice and demanding payment), informing me that PG&K was abandoning me and refusing all representation effective immediately. Exhibit L is a true and correct copy of the e-mail that Pronske sent to me. Pronske's notice came hours before I was required to effectuate compliance with the orders imposed on me by Judge Jernigan. I was harmed and his position was severely compromised by Pronske's conduct.
14. However, despite ceasing all representation, Pronske refused to notify Judge Jernigan or opposing counsel that PG&K was no longer representing me and was not assisting him in any way to comply with the orders. Exhibit M is a true and correct copy of an e-mail that was copied to me where Pronske notified opposing counsel, on August 25, 2010, that he was no longer representing me. Pronske and PG&K's actions left me in an extremely compromised position with Judge Jernigan, who was left with the misimpression that Pronske and his firm were still representing me and assisting him to comply with its Orders.
15. In an attempt to halt the burgeoning problems that Pronske and his firm's abandonment was causing, I scrambled to find replacement counsel to substitute into the case. Upon beginning work on the case, my replacement counsel requested that Pronske provide me with the firm's client files and requested that Pronske notify the Bankruptcy Court of the substitution so that a transition could occur quickly. Instead of cooperating with my replacement counsel, Pronske's response was to refuse to turnover my client files and refuse to agree to a substitution of counsel prior to PG&K being paid in accordance with Pronske's demands.

16. In representing me, Pronske negotiated the Global Settlement Agreement which included substituting trustees for the Village Trust.. Pronske recommended and identified an "offshore" trustee to me, negotiated the terms of the agreement and disclosed same to Judge Jernigan in detail. Pronske was well aware of the difficulty I was having finding a replacement for the Trustee of The Village Trust, and he so advised Judge Jernigan on more than one occasion of such difficulties and in Pronske's participation in the same.
17. Instead of agreeing to substitute counsel, on September 7, 2010, Pronske, on behalf of PG&K, filed an "emergency motion to withdraw" as my counsel. PG&K then filed an Emergency Motion for Expedited Hearing in which he and accused me of preparing to move assets beyond the court's jurisdiction and engaging in otherwise unlawful conduct. Yet, the "unlawful activities" alleged by Pronske and PG&K were performed under the supervision, direction and participation of Mr. Pronske, himself, as he described to the Court only a few months prior.

1 EXCERPT 28 APRIL 2014, 2:00:07 to 2:04:03 P.M.

2 THE COURT: All right. Well here will be the ruling
3 of the Court.

4 The Court is going to grant the motion for remand. This 5 is docket entry number 9 in the adversary proceeding. The 6 Court finds good cause at this juncture of the adversary
7 proceeding to grant the motion. The cause being that 8 circumstances have significantly changed since the adversary
9 proceeding was removed, or since the action was removed, such 10 that subject matter jurisdiction is now questionable, if not
11 nonexistent with regard to relatedness to the Ondova bankruptcy
12 case. Specifically, the Court has allowed the substantial
13 contribution claim in this case and the Court is not convinced
14 that the fact there might be credit on it if there are payments
15 by Jeff Baron on counterclaims Mr. Pronske asserts. The fact
16 that the substantial contribution claim might be reduced and 17 entitled to a smaller dividend from the Ondova trustee, to me,
18 is not enough of a nexus for bankruptcy subject matter
19 jurisdiction to still exist. Moreover, it would appear that 20 state law issues dominate, and it is in the interest of comity
21 for state law and state court for this Court to remand.

22 I am going to direct you, Mr. Simon, as newly appeared
23 counsel of record for Mr. Baron to submit electronically an 24 order of remand to the Court. I will direct you to submit that 25 within five days. Is there any question or problem with that,

1 Mr. Simon?

2 MR. SIMON: Your Honor, do you want me to have the
3 order signed off by Mr. Pronske?

4 THE COURT: Well, I would like you actually to run it
5 by him and give him at least 24 hours to comment. I don't 6 expect it to be more than a one or two-page order.

7 Mr. Pronske, would you like to sign it? I mean if --

8 MR. PRONSKE: We don't need to sign it if we'll get a
9 chance to look at it.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Just give him 24 hours to look at 11 it and comment on it, okay?

12 MR. SIMON: I don't intend on it being a lengthy 13 order, Your Honor. In fact, I would simply incorporate the 14 findings and conclusions that the Court made on the record
15 without reciting them in the order, and then I would just 16 provide for the case to be reminded in the creedal paragraphs,
17 if that's okay.

18 THE COURT: All right. That is what I intend.

19 MR. SIMON: Okay.

20 THE COURT: Now, we'll look for that order, like I
21 said, within five days. And then on the other matter, you have 22 appeared, I take it -- I haven't really paid attention to who 23 has and who hasn't on that 303(i) request for damages. Did I
24 understand correctly you --

25 MR. SIMON: Yes, I filed that, Your Honor.

Pannier for Chapter 11 Trustee; D. Sherman, Chapter 11 Trustee; J. MacPete for Manila and Netsphere; C. Capua and M. Taylor (telephonically) for Novo Point and Quantec; P. Vogel, Special Master. Arriving late and appearing were: G. Pronske and G. Lyons, both for J. Baron, who was announced to be at Plano Presbyterian Hospital ER. Discussion of status of documenting the six remaining issues that were pending as of the conclusion of 7/14/10 hearing. Four out of six issues were announced as being resolved and documented. This left two remaining issues pertaining to Belton Trust and Domain Name Renewal Agreement. Jeff Barons lawyers, after various questioning, represented that they believed the issues pertaining to these two issues were resolved to Jeff Barons satisfaction (the most material terms being that: (a) Jeff Baron will now sign the settlement agreement as Trustee of the Belton Trust and make certain representations therein about beneficiaries and assets), and (b) the bankruptcy court will decide the pricing under the Domain Name Renewal Agreement at an evidentiary hearing to be set, upon the filing of a motion by the Chapter 11 Trustee). The court ultimately issued a bench ruling requiring, among other things, that the Chapter 11 Trustee upload an order approving the settlement agreement (that incorporates these terms as to the Belton Trust and pricing under the Domain Name Renewal Agreement), and also that Jeff Baron sign and file with the court two affidavits one of which is to disclose to the court under oath his medical crisis and hospital visit that prevented him from attending the 7/22/10 status conference (with documentation attached such as hospital records showing time in-and-out and doctor note) and the other of which should contain certain representations and agreements as to the Belton Trust Issue. (RE: related document(s)368 Motion to compromise controversy with Jeffrey Baron, et al. Trustee's Motion for Approval of Settlement Agreement Pursuant to Rule 9019, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure Filed by Trustee Daniel J. Sherman (Attachments: # 1 Exhibit A)) Appearances: R. Urbanik for Trustee Sherman; Trustee Sherman; E. Taub for Quantec and Novopoint; J. MacPete and M. Hayward for Manilla/NetSphere; G. Lyon for J. Baron; P. Vogel, Special Master to Judge R. Furgeson; J. Eckles for Quantec; G. Pronske and R. Patel for Pronske & Patel firm; R. Lurich for his Friedman & Feiger. Evidentiary hearing (as to status conference and Show Cause Matter involving Jeff Baron). Court heard reports concerning status of settlement implementation and latest dispute concerning Remaining Allocated Names. Court indicated that it would strike Request for Clarification of Settlement Provisions Regarding the Remaining Unallocated Names as it was procedurally deficient (in addition to appearing to be improper substantively). Court continued Status Conference and Show Cause Matter as to Jeff Baron to 9/30/10 at 2:30 pm. Court indicated likelihood of reporting and recommending that Judge R. Furgeson appoint a receiver over Jeff Baron if settlement not fully consummated by 9/30/10 and/or if court continues to have concern regarding Jeff Barons gamesmanship with hiring, firing, and not paying attorneys. Court heard various discussion regarding a form of order the would both resolve the VeriSign motion and approve an attached letter agreement regarding wind-down. Discussions revealed letter agreement was not 100% agreed and court expressed concern about extinguishment of estates lien in Blue Horizon portfolio until transfer of domain names out of estate and also concern about possible $60,000 of penalties (associated with possible delays into November of transfer of domain names) being chargeable against $330,000 security deposit Trustee Sherman is already holding. Parties will either upload a mutually acceptable agreed order (addressing these concerns of the court) or court will enter a simple order to be uploaded by VeriSign granting its motion to terminate agreements with Ondova. Order to be uploaded by counsel. (Harden, D.) (Entered: 11/04/2010)
10/28/2010	Hearing held on 10/28/2010. (RE: related document(s) 397 Trustee's Motion for Determination of Pricing With Respect to Domain Name Registration Agreement by Daniel J. Sherman .) Appearances: R. Urbanik and L. Pannier for Trustee D. Sherman; Trustee D. Sherman; M. Thomas and G. Lyon for J. Baron; J. MacPete and M. Hayward for Manilla/NetSphere; A. Degeyter and E. Schnabel for VeriSign; J. Eckles for Quantec; J. Cox for NovoPoint; R. Patel for Pronske & Patel. R. Puri appeared telephonically for Manilla/NetSphere. Nonevidentiary hearing. Court heard various discussion regarding a form of order the would both resolve the VeriSign motion and approve an attached letter agreement regarding wind-down. Discussions revealed letter agreement was not 100% agreed and court expressed concern about extinguishment of estates lien in Blue Horizon portfolio until transfer of domain names out of estate and also concern about possible $60,000 of penalties (associated with possible delays into November of transfer of domain names) being chargeable against $330,000 security deposit Trustee Sherman is already holding. Parties will either upload a mutually acceptable agreed order (addressing these concerns of the court) or court will enter a simple order to be uploaded by VeriSign granting its motion to terminate agreements with Ondova. Order to be uploaded by counsel. (Harden, D.) (Entered: 11/04/2010)

MOTION FOR EXPEDITED HEARING ON EMERGENCY MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS ATTORNEY OF RECORD FOR JEFFREY BARON

TO THE HONORABLE STACEY G. C. JERNIGAN,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Pronske & Patel, P.C. (“PronskePatel”), pursuant to Section 105 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et. seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”), seeks an order from the Court setting an expedited hearing on Emergency Motion to Withdraw as Attorney of Record for Jeffrey Baron [Docket No. 419] (the “Motion to Withdraw”). In support of this Motion, PronskePatel respectfully represents as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334(b). This matter is a core proceeding and this Motion is proper in this district pursuant to 28

U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

2. The statutory basis for relief requested herein is Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code.

II. BACKGROUND

3. On July 27, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed for bankruptcy protection under chapter 11 of title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. On September 17, 2009, the Court entered an order approving the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee (Docket No. 98).

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

5. As more fully set forth in the Motion to Withdraw, PronskePatel hereby seeks formal withdrawal as attorneys of record for Jeffrey Baron in the above-referenced bankruptcy action.

6. Expedited consideration of the Motion to Withdraw is warranted by the impending time-sensitive issues in this case. Upon information and belief, PronskePatel has recently learned that Mr. Baron intends to transfer assets to an offshore entity over which U.S. Courts will not have jurisdiction, in order to hide those assets from legitimate creditors. Upon information and belief, Mr. Baron will be transferring such assets around September 15, 2010. In order to pursue state court remedies against such assets and to comply with all ethical obligations, PronskePatel must withdraw as counsel of record for Mr. Baron by September 15, 2010. Thus, PronskePatel must respectfully request that the Court grant relief on an expedited basis, so that PronskePatel may withdraw prior to the transfer of assets by Mr. Baron. Accordingly, PronskePatel respectfully requests a hearing on the Motion to Withdraw on an expedited basis, on or before September 15, 2010. Specifically, PronskePatel requests that this matter be set before or at the same time as the expedited status conference currently set in this case on September 15, 2010 at 1:30 p.m. [Docket No. 22].

7. PronskePatel has recently learned that Baron intends to hide his assets offshore as early as September 15, 2010. Thus, the hearing will need to move forward expeditiously to prevent Mr. Baron's unlawful activities.

8. Notice of the proposed emergency hearing will be provided to the Trustee, Mr. Baron, counsel for Mr. Baron, and all parties requesting notice.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, PronskePatel respectfully requests the Court enter an order expediting the hearing on the Motion to Withdraw and granting such other and further relief, whether in law or in equity, as the Court may deem proper.

Dated: September 9, 2010

1 (Pause.) Hold on just a minute. (Pause.) All right. I'll
2 just do a global search in my document before I finalize it.
3 Anything else?

4 MR. FINE: Your Honor, this is Jeff Fine. In the 5 form of the confirmation order that we'll submit to the Court,
6 we will I think reference the Fifth Circuit's order that we
7 cannot close on the sale except through further order of that 8 Court or by November 30th. I don't remember exact -- their 9 exact language. But I think we will include that language in 10 the confirmation order.

11 THE COURT: All right. Very well. Again, this is 12 simply styled findings of fact and conclusions of law, and I
13 did anticipate a separate order being submitted by you, Mr.
14 Fine. Or Mr. Urbanik.

15 All right. Anything else? It's 4:20. It may be tomorrow
16 before these get entered, but if not tonight, tomorrow
17 morning.

18 All right. Well, one unfinished matter is Mr. Pronske's 19 matter. And Mr. Pronske, I am going to approve in full your 20 application for allowance of an administrative expense claim
21 and substantial contribution claim. So I am going to refrain
22 from orally announcing detailed findings of fact and 23 conclusions of law on that, but I'm going to ask you to simply 24 submit a form of order that grants in full your application.
25 And when I say "your application," as amended at least twice.

1 The one that you submitted yesterday.

2 All right. Can you submit that to me? Mr. Pronske, are 3 you there?

4 MR. PRONSKE: Yes, Your Honor. I'm sorry. I just
5 said thank you, and I will get the order to you. Thank you
6 very much.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And I will also get that signed
8 right away. All right. Anything else?

9 (No response.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, in that case, we stand
11 adjourned and I will be getting this entered forthwith. All 12 right.

13 MR. FINE: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

14 THE CLERK: All rise.

15 MR. VOGEL: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 DALLAS, TEXAS - JULY 22, 2010 - 2:35 P.M.

2 THE COURT: Please be seated. We have an Ondova
3 status conference, Case No. 09-34784. Let's get appearances
4 from counsel.

5 MR. URBANIK: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Ray Urbanik
6 and Lee Pannier from Munsch Hardt on behalf of Daniel Sherman,
7 Chapter 11 Trustee.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. MACPETE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. John
10 MacPete on behalf of the NetSphere parties.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. CAPUA: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Craig Capua
13 and Mark Taylor on behalf of Quantec, LLC and Novo Point, LLC.

14 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Taylor, are you on the 15 phone?

16 MR. TAYLOR: Yes, Your Honor. I'm here. Thank you
17 for allowing me to appear by phone.

18 THE COURT: Sure.

19 MR. VOGEL: Okay. And Your Honor, Peter Vogel on 20 behalf of -- Roy Furgeson's Special Master.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

23 setting that day on a 9019 motion to approve a settlement. We 24 started that hearing the 12th of July, and then came back on 25 the 14th. At that hearing, the Court approved the proposed

1 settlement agreement subject to six issues being drafted up in
2 a manner that had been described on the record that day.
3 Knowing the history of this case, we all sort of discussed the 4 possibility of having a follow-up status conference if those 5 six issues were not promptly wordsmithed.

6 With that, Mr. Urbanik, I'll ask you where we are on those 7 six issues and what we need the status conference for today.

8 MR. URBANIK: Your Honor, Ray Urbanik for Daniel
9 Sherman, Trustee.

10 That is correct. When we were here last, the Court, I 11 believe, you know, had listened to a lot of evidence and 12 reviewed documents and heard all the presentations of counsel,
13 and essentially preapproved the settlement except for the six 14 outstanding issues. And I think the Court did a great job of 15 tying down parties so that they couldn't have some wiggle room
16 out of the, you know, overwhelming majority of the settlement
17 agreement. I would say that it is 96 percent complete, 98
18 percent complete.

19 The six remaining issues that the Court wanted the parties
20 to go and just, you know, finalize or handle technical 21 amendments were as follows. There was a very last-minute
22 agreement between us and Mr. Baron on Section 6(c). We got the 23 provision right as the hearing started, so we wanted to review
24 that back at the office, which we have done, and worked out
25 changes to that 6(c) section.

1 The trusts had also been working on a document with the
2 Baron parties, and they also had requested time to kind of
3 review that, those provisions, outside the courtroom. And I
4 believe that's been done and all agreed to.

5 There were several documents that our firm was circulating,
6 and I don't think Mr. MacPete had received them, and one of 7 them had not yet been sent around to the parties. One was 8 simply the form of order that the Trustee holds in escrow in 9 the event of a default of the additional payment. That was 10 sent around to everyone. I've not gotten any comments back.
11 That's the order that we give to a monetizer in case there's a 12 default in payment.

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. URBANIK: There is a security agreement that the 15 estate is receiving, and with respect to that additional 16 payment, the security agreements and the monetization of the 17 Blue Horizon names, not the names themselves, we sent that 18 around and didn't get any -- there might have been a very minor
19 edit from one of the parties.

20 And then an agreement that was fairly important and was 21 discussed at the last hearing was a domain name renewal
22 agreement for Ondova to remain the registrar for the next six 23 or seven months while the bankruptcy case wraps up and until 24 the estate receives all the money it's owed under the 25 additional payment. Now, that domain name renewal agreement is

1 -- has been circulated, but the pricing that the estate is
2 going to receive is not resolved yet with Mr. Baron.

3 I think the last issue of the six was the Belton Trust
4 matter, which the Manila/NetSphere parties were trying to pin
5 down who the trustee was, and there was some testimony from Mr.
6 Baron. And essentially the Court sent the parties out of here
7 to work out the technical aspects of getting the Belton Trust
8 issues either resolved through the settlement agreement or the 9 order, wherever they wanted to do it.

10 We're here today with just two outstanding issues, I can 11 report. One is Mr. MacPete has worked with the Baron parties 12 on the Belton Trust issue, and I think Mr. MacPete is able to 13 get that done today if Mr. Baron shows up with his lawyers,
14 because they want -- I think Mr. MacPete wants a proffer from 15 Mr. Baron.

16 THE COURT: Where is Mr. Baron and Mr. Pronske and/or 17 Mr. Lyon?

18 MR. URBANIK: Let me start. Right before I got in the 19 car to come here, Mr. MacPete and I spoke, and Mr. MacPete had 20 gotten a call from Mr. Lyon that Mr. Baron was in the hospital.
21 I'll let Mr. MacPete report what he's heard.

22 MR. MACPETE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. We had 23 worked out an arrangement with respect to the Belton Trust and 24 Domain Jamboree issues, Gary Lyon and myself. I have some e-
25 mail confirmation of that. That does involve a proffer by Mr.

1 Baron today.

2 And about, I guess, 40 minutes ago now, Your Honor, I got a
3 call roughly from Mr. Lyon, indicated that he was en route to 4 the Plano Presbyterian Hospital, where apparently Mr. Baron had 5 checked himself in last night, and that he was either going to 6 pick him up and bring him to the hearing, because I indicated
7 it would be difficult for the Court to resolve this matter on 8 both the outstanding issues without Mr. Baron available, and he 9 said he would either show up with Mr. Baron or he would get 10 some kind of a note from a doctor that they weren't going to 11 let him out of the hospital.

12 That's the last I heard. That was about 40 minutes ago,
13 Your Honor. And I've been hoping he was actually going to walk
14 in the door with Mr. Baron. But that's what I know so far.

15 THE COURT: And Mr. Pronske?

16 MR. MACPETE: I have not talked to Mr. Pronske. I
17 understand Mr. Urbanik has talked Mr. Pronske today, but it
18 sounded like, what Mr. Urbanik was telling me, that maybe Mr.
19 Pronske was unaware that Mr. Baron was in the hospital. But I
20 think he can speak to that.

21 THE COURT: Okay. But you think you have the Belton
22 Trust language all worked out, but you simply had wanted Mr.
23 Baron to kind of confirm on the record that --

24 MR. MACPETE: Right. The --

25 THE COURT: -- you were done on that?

1 MR. MACPETE: The agreement was that we were going to
2 ask the Court to make a finding with respect to the Belton
3 Trust. Mr. Baron was going to proffer testimony that he is, in 4 fact, the trustee of the Belton Trust.

5 THE COURT: Come on up, Mr. Pronske.

6 MR. MACPETE: Oh, there's Mr. Pronske.

7 And there were some other aspects to the --

8 THE COURT: He was going to --

9 MR. MACPETE: -- finding that we wanted --

10 THE COURT: I'm sorry. He was going to testify he is 11 the trustee on the Belton Trust?

12 MR. MACPETE: He's -- yeah. That's he's the trustee
13 of the Belton Trust. That all the beneficiaries of the Belton
14 Trust are signing the settlement agreement and desire the trust
15 to be bound by the settlement agreement. That the only asset
16 in which the Belton Trust has any interest is Domain Jamboree,
17 and that the only assets in which Domain Jamboree has an 18 interest are the domain name DomainJamboree.com and its 19 accreditation agreement with ICANN and its agreement with 20 VeriSign to be a registrar. And then, further, he was going to 21 proffer testimony that Jay Kline is the current manager of 22 Domain Jamboree, LLC and is authorized to sign the settlement
23 agreement on behalf of Domain Jamboree.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. MACPETE: So I think we have that issue worked

1 out, assuming that he was here to make such a proffer for Your
2 Honor to make that finding.

3 THE COURT: All of a sudden, all these details about
4 Belton Trust have become so clear.

5 MR. MACPETE: Well, part of the way that happened, I
6 think, Your Honor, is that earlier this year the accreditation
7 agreement between Domain Jamboree and ICANN expired and a new 8 agreement was entered into by this Mr. Kline as the manager.
9 And when I told Gary Lyon that Mr. Kline had entered into that 10 agreement, I asked him to talk to Mr. Kline, because it was my 11 belief -- I haven't talked Mr. Kline -- it was my belief he 12 would say he was appointed to that position by Mr. Baron, which 13 would be evidence that Mr. Baron was acting as the trustee of 14 Belton Trust. At that point, Mr. Lyon and Mr. Baron agreed
15 that he would so testify.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So we're going to hear from Mr.
17 Pronske on what he knows, if anything, about the whereabouts of 18 Mr. Baron.

19 MR. PRONSKE: Your Honor, I apologize for being late.
20 I was speaking to him on the phone. He's been admitted to the 21 emergency room at Plano Presbyterian, and that's where he is 22 now. So Mr. --

23 THE COURT: He's waiting around in the emergency room,
24 or he's actually been admitted?

25 MR. PRONSKE: He's in the emergency room receiving an

1 IV, and he's been vomiting and having a lot of issues today
2 that are related to his body chemistry and his diabetes, and he
3 is likely going to be admitted.

4 So Mr. MacPete is correct about the proffer. And maybe we
5 can satisfy the Court through an affidavit or something like
6 that. But he won't be able to be here to testify to that 7 today. Or we can reconvene if the Court wants to take a
8 proffer to that effect.

9 We were also going to have a hearing today relating to 10 pricing because we haven't been able to reach an agreement on 11 that, and he's obviously not here to testify for that, either.
12 So I would like to -- I think those are our only last couple of 13 issues, and I'd like to put that hearing off, too, because I
14 don't have Mr. Baron to testify on that issue.

15 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. Clarify on pricing. We 16 think we might have an agreement on that, or we wanted --

17 MR. PRONSKE: No, we were going to --

18 THE COURT: -- the Court to decide on that?

19 MR. PRONSKE: Yeah. We were going to need some Court
20 time to decide the pricing issue, which we were not able to 21 reach an agreement on. And that is going to require some 22 testimony from Mr. Baron, too. I don't think that's a long
23 hearing. I think that's maybe, you know, 20 to 30 minutes of 24 testimony and argument on that. But we're unable to go forward
25 on that today as well.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Well, it goes without saying I'm
2 going to need some proof of Mr. Baron's medical crisis.

3 MR. PRONSKE: Right.

4 THE COURT: So we'll discuss that in a minute.

5 MR. PRONSKE: Okay.

6 MR. SHERMAN: Judge, I don't think I have a pricing
7 issue problem. I have reached an agreement with the trusts.
8 They have agreed to pay the estate $8.94 a name through the six 9 -- probably January or February, whatever the last month it is 10 that we received our payment.

11 THE COURT: And the trust we are talking about now is 12 Village Trust, or which trust?

13 MR. SHERMAN: Village Trust. Mr. Taylor is on the 14 line.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Taylor, do you confirm that the 16 Village Trust has agreed to that?

17 MR. TAYLOR: Yes, Your Honor. We're not contesting
18 the pricing at all. And I think Mr. Capua can attest to that 19 as well.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So $8.94 per name?

21 MR. SHERMAN: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Through, I'm sorry, how long?

23 MR. SHERMAN: Well, until the estate is paid, till the 24 estate is paid off. The problem that I think Mr. Baron has is 25 that -- and for whatever reason, Mr. Pronske doesn't agree with

1 me on this -- is he needs to take that -- he's a beneficiary of 2 the trust. If he doesn't like it, he needs to talk to his
3 trustee protector or whatever. The problem is, he's asked his 4 trustee protector to resign. Then he realized he didn't have
5 anybody else to take their place, so he had to ask the trustee
6 protector to hang around for another 60 days until he could
7 find somebody else that was willing to do it.

8 And I just don't -- I don't have a problem on the pricing.
9 Mr. Baron does, and I don't care. If he wants to come down
10 here and say he's not going to sign the agreement, he's not 11 going to abide by it because he as a beneficiary is 12 disappointed in what's going on over there, if I was 13 representing him, I would advise him not to do that in a 14 judicial proceeding, demonstrate that he is attempting to 15 control his trust. But I'm not his lawyer. I'm just an 16 irritated trustee and tired of dealing with him.

17 THE COURT: Let me -- before I lose my train of 18 thought and forget about one issue -- I mean, the way this case
19 is, I have to do this. On the six issues that had to be 20 resolved, had to be wordsmithed after the July 14th hearing, 21 there was one that you didn't list out, Mr. Urbanik, the 22 supplemental agreement dealing with Ms. Schurig's role and 23 compensation. I think Mr. Taube, Mr. Capua just wanted one 24 final chance to eyeball that, and maybe Mr. MacPete did, too.
25 I don't know. I don't think so on Mr. MacPete. Are we done on

1 that one?

2 MR. URBANIK: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. URBANIK: I didn't do a very good job at all in 5 listing those issues. That was, I think, the second item I was 6 attempting to describe earlier, but I couldn't remember the 7 name of it. You're right. It was like the supplemental
8 agreement, and I called it, you know, the trust provisions, I
9 believe, earlier when I was noting to the Court that I believe
10 that's all been worked out between the trusts and the Baron
11 parties. But it was, I think, called the supplemental 12 settlement agreement, --

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. URBANIK: -- if I'm not mistaken.

15 THE COURT: So that's definitely off? All right.

16 MR. URBANIK: Your Honor, with respect to the 17 pricing, Mr. Sherman is correct. The trusts have agreed to the 18 $8.94 per name, but I understand Mr. Baron won't sign the 19 settlement agreement at that price. I think that's his 20 position.

21 I'm ready to go forward today. I have a witness and I was 22 going to call Damon Nelson and I was going to call Mr. Baron to 23 testify about the issue if we were going to have an evidentiary
24 hearing. But he is only the beneficiary of the trusts, and the 25 trusts have agreed.

1 And just by way of background, Your Honor, the price that 2 the trusts had been paying was $9.50 a name, and then during
3 the -- for three months, at their request, we reduced the price
4 to $7.89 as a favor, and it had no mark-up. The new requested
5 cost that we're asking for is $8.94, which is a 7 percent
6 margin, and Mr. Baron has not agreed to it. The trusts can 7 certainly afford to pay it, because Mr. Nelson has analyzed the 8 revenue. And even paying $8.94 a name, there's profits of 9 almost a million dollars for the next 12 months. So it's a 10 very -- these names are doing very well. They make a lot of 11 money. There will no longer be legal fees and the litigation
12 settlements.

13 So we were going to go forward, if the Court wanted, and 14 have an evidentiary hearing. But since the trusts have agreed,
15 you know, we -- you know, we're ready to sign up the new domain
16 name renewal agreement with the trusts. And if Mr. Baron
17 doesn't want to sign the settlement agreement, then, you know, 18 we may just begin litigation against him. It's -- he should be 19 here.

20 I did talk to Mr. Pronske twice today, I'm sure he'll note.
21 We spoke at 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m., and we weren't told. I
22 was not told by Mr. Pronske that Mr. Baron had gone to the 23 hospital. Mr. MacPete heard that he went last night, so I'm 24 not sure why no one could call us. Mr. Lyon and Mr. Pronske
25 didn't advise any of us today about this hospital thing. It

1 just was John's call about, I don't know, 1:00 o'clock or 1:15.
2 And we could have let the Court know and saved a lot of
3 attorney's fees if we had known not to come down here.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Pronske?

5 MR. PRONSKE: Your Honor, --

6 THE COURT: You can imagine about what is floating
7 through my mind right now, can't you?

8 MR. PRONSKE: Well, I -- yeah, Your Honor. I can tell
9 you, Mr. Baron's at Presbyterian, and the Court can call and 10 ask. You know, that's not, I don't think, secret information.
11 The first --

12 THE COURT: Good idea. I think I will.

13 MR. PRONSKE: The first time that I was aware of it
14 was a voicemail that, I just looked at my phone, came in at 15 12:56 from Gary Lyon, who told me that he was in the hospital.
16 I spoke with Mr. Baron this morning, and I know that he was not 17 feeling very good but he was not in the hospital this morning.
18 So -- and he did not make --

19 THE COURT: Who heard he was there last night? I'm 20 sorry? What --

21 MR. MACPETE: That's what Mr. Lyon told me when he 22 called me, that Mr. Baron had gone to the hospital last night.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. PRONSKE: He may have. That's news to me. He may 25 have gone and left. I don't know. I'm not saying that's not

1 true. But I know this morning when I spoke to him he was at 2 home. And he was not feeling well, and we had to terminate our 3 call early because he was not feeling good, and did not get to 4 finish it. But he didn't call me before he went to the 5 hospital, so I didn't know until I got Mr. Lyon's message.

6 I do think he is -- he has standing to be heard today. And 7 if this was just an issue between the trusts and Mr. Sherman,
8 then I agree, from a legal standpoint, he would be bound as a
9 beneficiary. Where that is different here is that the 10 bankruptcy trustee and their counsel have made this domain
11 registrar agreement be forced to be signed as a part of the 12 settlement agreement. It's in Paragraph 6(c) of the settlement
13 agreement, says that it has to be signed and that all of these 14 names have to be bound to Ondova. It doesn't have a price.
15 And that price was thrust on us, literally seconds before we 16 came into a hearing to approve the settlement, for the very 17 first time.

18 And what has been paid in the past is cost for the last few 19 months, which was that $7.80-something. And actually, their 20 cost is $7.34 to VeriSign and another $.20 to ICANN, and then
21 all of the costs of running the various people in the office:
22 Damon Nelson, Oksana whatever her last name is, the rent of the 23 office, and their administrative expenses. They've given us a 24 flowchart showing that that's $8.29. And we have offered to 25 pay the $8.29.

1 What they want to do is make a profit on that, and which we
2 don't think is a place that they should be right now, because 3 we have negotiated, strenuously have negotiated the monies, the 4 dollars to be paid by the trusts. We've agreed twice to 5 increase that amount midstream by Mr. Sherman. And I'm not
6 saying Mr. Sherman was incorrect or wrong or I'm not casting
7 any aspersions at him at requesting increases during the case,
8 but he did request increases while we were doing this 9 negotiation, and we very reluctantly agreed to pay those 10 increases.

11 And then the latest increase, which is essentially profit
12 on this contract, was thrust upon us right before we started 13 the last settlement hearing, and it was forced to be part of 14 the settlement agreement. It's in Paragraph 6(c). And so Mr.
15 Baron is a party to this agreement. If they want to pull it
16 out of the settlement agreement and make that not a part of 17 this agreement and allow Mr. Baron, when -- to deal with 18 whatever registrar he wants to, that's another matter. The 19 market is about $8.00 for these domain names.

20 And the reason it makes a difference, Your Honor, and Mr.
21 Baron unfortunately can't testify, I wish he was here, because 22 his testimony would be essentially that the money from the 23 trusts is extremely tight and his expenses are extremely tight
24 and the profit coming off of it on a monthly basis is not 25 sufficient to pay all the expenses. And he's been very

1 anxious, very anxious, --

2 THE COURT: I'm hearing a million dollars from this
3 side of the room and I'm hearing very tight from you.

4 MR. PRONSKE: It's not a million dollars, and they
5 know it's not a million dollars. It's $719,000 was the amount
6 that was testified to, and that number dwindles very quickly
7 with all of the amounts that are required to be funded as a
8 part of the settlement.

9 To give the Court just two examples, my fee to Mr. Baron
10 that will have to come out of the trust is $200,000, roughly.
11 Actually, a little bit more than that since February, and I
12 haven't been paid. All the other attorneys have been paid in 13 this case, and it's multiples of that for each attorney in this 14 room. And there is a $200,000 figure that has to be paid and 15 is securitized and which is brought up in the whole Paragraph 16 6(c) of collateralization.

17 Those two numbers alone are $400,000, which is more than 18 half of what's in the trust, and the cash revenue figures that 19 we have shown to Mr. Urbanik show that in the last 14 months
20 the average cash flow has actually yielded a negative number.
21 Of course, that's with a lot of attorney's fees that we've paid
22 to the trusts' attorneys, about $950,000 in the last 14 months
23 to those. But even if you add that money back, it's still not 24 a very significant amount. Mr. Baron has huge tax liabilities,
25 and the money is going to run out.

1 And so that's why we've been really careful about
2 negotiating these numbers, and Mr. Baron has had quite a bit of
3 anxiety about agreeing at the last minute to pay an extra
4 $200,000 and collateralizing it with all these names. And 5 we've negotiated that hard. And now there's another number, of 6 the estate getting a profit off of these names. And I -- Your 7 Honor, I don't think that's right, to have that placed upon him
8 at the very last second. And it's basically about $75,000,
9 maybe $80,000, of what that profit would be over the next few
10 months. And the numbers are too tight.

11 And so we've said no to this, and we've said no because --

12 THE COURT: Wait. I mean, I wouldn't be surprised if 13 there are two answers to this question, but I really want to 14 understand the dollars and cents.

15 MR. PRONSKE: Okay.

16 THE COURT: The difference between $7.89 and $8.94, I
17 mean, I could do the math if I knew the number of names and how 18 often this becomes due.

19 MR. PRONSKE: Uh-huh.

20 THE COURT: What is the math?

21 MR. PRONSKE: Okay.

22 THE COURT: What is the exact math?

23 MR. PRONSKE: That's a very good question. And here
24 is what I understand the math is, and it's not the difference 25 between the $7.84, because we're willing to pay $8.29, which

1 we've given -- we've been given a spreadsheet by the Trustee,
2 generated by the Trustee, that shows the following costs.

3 $7.34 is the --

4 THE COURT: VeriSign?

5 MR. PRONSKE: Is to VeriSign. That's the cost for 6 registering the names. There's another $.20 that's to ICANN.
7 That's $7.54. And then the spread between $7.54 and $8.29 is 8 essentially the registrar costs of administration in this case.
9 And quite frankly, I don't think that all of that is registrar
10 costs. I think a lot of what Mr. Damon Nelson does is general 11 administration in the bankruptcy and is not attributable to 12 registrar --

13 THE COURT: But you all will concede $8.29 can be the 14 --

15 MR. PRONSKE: We would pay the $8.29, which is their 16 costs. And those are their numbers, and that pays all of Mr.
17 Nelson's monthly salary of -- I think it's $9,500, Oksana's
18 monthly salary, which I think is a couple thousand dollars, 19 Jeff Baron's payroll and his insurance, which I think is 20 somewhere around a thousand, and the rent on the facility, and 21 all of their costs of basically running the registrar business.
22 That cost plus the $7.54 equals $8.29. So when I say $75,000
23 to $80,000 in profit, I'm talking about between that $8.29
24 number and the $8.94 number.

25 And we have been receiving -- or, we -- the trusts have

1 been paying $7.89, which was the cost number, and that's what
2 it was our expectation that we were going to continue to pay
3 that until the bankruptcy plan was confirmed. And this number,
4 as I said, of $8.94 was not only thrust upon us at the last
5 minute, but was thrust upon us at the last minute and it was 6 put into the settlement agreement so that we have to agree to 7 it.

8 And so, if we have to agree to it, then I think we get to 9 say the price is not what it should be. And the market price,
10 and we actually have an expert witness, the market price is 11 about $8.00 and possibly less than $8.00 when you do both 12 registrations.

13 THE COURT: But the $.65, the difference between $8.94
14 and $8.29, times how many names? I mean, it --

15 MR. PRONSKE: It would be about 130,000 names that 16 would have to be registered during that time period. And I
17 think if you do the math of 130,000 names times that $.65, I
18 think you come out with about $75,000-$80,000. So that is the 19 number that I'm calling the profit.

20 THE COURT: So we are down today to a $75,000 issue?

21 MR. PRONSKE: Well, we are, but this isn't settlement
22 or no settlement for that issue. This is just we need input 23 from the Court as to what that number should be, because we 24 can't agree to it.

25 THE COURT: What do you mean, it's not settlement or

1 no settlement? I thought --

2 MR. PRONSKE: We've agreed -- no, we've agreed to a
3 settlement based on the Court resolving that issue.

4 THE COURT: So he will sign the settlement documents
5 and we will go effective and then we'll just have a later
6 hearing and whatever the Court rules the Court rules? That's 7 what you envision?

8 MR. PRONSKE: That's not what we envisioned. What we 9 envisioned was we were going to come down here and try the 10 pricing issue, get a ruling, and then sign up the settlement
11 agreement.

12 And we are also asking that Mr. Baron be able to use a 13 different registrar if the number is not right, which is -- the 14 ICANN rules and regulations, which is the rules and regulations
15 that govern the Internet business, say that registrars are not 16 permitted to prevent transfers of names. And so Ondova has no
17 right to let us move to whatever registrar we want to move to.
18 And I've got the law on that to present to the Court.

19 So, Your Honor, what we're asking for I really don't think 20 is unfair. We're willing to pay their complete costs so that 21 they're not out a nickel to administer that registrar business
22 for about the next three or four months while we go forward
23 with plan confirmation. And that's what we are seeking, and I
24 think the Court is being asked to resolve that pricing issue.
25 And I think the settlement's a go, and --

1 THE COURT: Well, he's not going to like however I
2 rule unless it's $8.29. If I say $8.30, I mean, given his past
3 behavior, he's going to -- he's not going to like it.

4 MR. PRONSKE: Your Honor, I think we're bound by the 5 Court's ruling.

6 THE COURT: No, you said that he would want the choice
7 to go with a different registrar if he doesn't like the ruling
8 of the Court.

9 MR. PRONSKE: Well, but see, if he goes with a
10 different registrar, they shouldn't have registration costs
11 associated with that. Right?

12 THE COURT: But they can explain to me, I think there
13 is a reason they want to stay on as registrar until the last
14 dime flows into the settlement agreement.

15 MR. PRONSKE: They might say that, but there shouldn't 16 be, because -- now, as to the Blue Horizon names, that would be 17 true, but that's about 5 percent of the names we're talking 18 about. They want to be the registrar on all of the names, and 19 they don't have a security interest in the cash flow or the 20 names for the Odd Group portfolio, which is 95 percent of the 21 names. So there shouldn't be any reason why they have to be
22 registrar.

23 THE COURT: Okay. What about this issue?

24 MR. PRONSKE: But --

25 THE COURT: What about this issue? The trust agrees;

1 the Village Trust trustee agrees?

2 MR. PRONSKE: And that -- if that was a standalone
3 agreement between just the trusts and the bankruptcy trustee,
4 Mr. Baron would not be able to do anything about that. But 5 that's not the case, because it's been forced upon Mr. Baron as 6 a part of the settlement agreement, which he is a signatory and 7 a party to. And if that's taken out of the settlement
8 agreement, then I have to sit down and I don't have a right to 9 argue that. But because they're making that be a part of the 10 settlement and they're making him sign that and be bound by it, 11 then he's got the right to protest that.

12 THE COURT: All right. Next, Mr. Lyon. Why don't you
13 come up here and tell me --

14 MR. PRONSKE: He's been to the hospital, so I think he 15 can probably give you --

16 THE COURT: Well, I'll -- first, Mr. Baron, what's the 17 story there?

18 MR. LYON: Your Honor, from talking to Michelle, which 19 is his charge nurse right now, --

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Talking to who?

21 MR. LYON: Between talking to Michelle, that is the 22 charge nurse of the emergency room at Plano Presbyterian, he's 23 been in there for three point -- about 3-1/2 hours. They have 24 actually ordered lab work, and they were about to take him out
25 right when I got there for x-rays for the chest and more,

1 stomach area, things like that.

2 They would not tell me exactly what was wrong with him
3 other than they are not -- they would not release him to my
4 custody. And I explained the necessity for that and they again
5 said, "We may be admitting him." So they did not have lab work
6 back at that time, and that was at two -- roughly 2:15. And at 7 that point, I had information that I needed to bring down here,
8 and we made a determination, I said, "I've just got to go and 9 I've got to let the Court know exactly the situation."

10 I do not know the name of his doctor, but we can get that 11 information.

12 THE COURT: So you actually went in there and talked 13 to this Nurse Shel?

14 MR. LYON: Michelle.

15 THE COURT: Ms. Shel?

16 MR. LYON: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: What's her -- how do you spell that name?

18 MR. LYON: M-I-C-H-E-L-L-E. Michelle. M. Mike-
19 India-Charlie-Hotel-Echo-Lima-Lima-Echo.

20 THE COURT: Michelle?

21 MR. LYON: Correct.

22 THE COURT: Michelle. We don't have a last name?

23 MR. LYON: I did not get her last name.

24 THE COURT: Nurse Michelle.

25 MR. LYON: All she just had was "Michelle."

1 THE COURT: Okay. I don't suppose you got anything in
2 writing, either, did you?

3 MR. LYON: I asked for that, and she said that she 4 would -- in fact, I specifically asked for that. She said she 5 would give it to the patient and that the patient could then
6 provide it to me. But I did ask for that. Yes, Your Honor, I
7 asked for it.

8 THE COURT: Did you see Mr. Baron?

9 MR. LYON: Yes, ma'am, I did. In fact, he actually 10 had John MacPete's language up on the hospital computer. He'd 11 asked the nurse to pull it up on the computer.

12 THE COURT: That's strange.

13 All right. Do you have anything yet to add to this 14 discussion about the pricing on the domain name registration
15 agreement?

16 MR. LYON: Your Honor, all I did was just review the 17 document provided to me by Damon Nelson, which was the Ondova
18 2010 cash flow projections, and that's what we're running our 19 numbers from. That's where we have the numbers of the actual 20 domain names that are going to be renewed each month. And I
21 just compared the two prices based upon the cost that was 22 provided to me, the $8.29 and the $8.94, which is where we came 23 up with the difference over six months of $83,588.05.

24 THE COURT: Okay. We talked about the Belton Trust
25 language issues before you came in. Mr. MacPete had given an

1 overview of how that had been worked out.

2 MR. LYON: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Essentially, Mr. Baron agreeing that he
4 was the trustee and would sign as trustee.

5 MR. LYON: That is correct.

6 THE COURT: And we wanted testimony in that regard,
7 but you confirm that we're done on that issue?

8 MR. LYON: Yes, Your Honor, I do.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, I am going to require 10 some proof of Mr. Baron's medical crisis, and we're going to 11 come back to that in a moment. You say he went in at noon,
12 roughly 11:30 or --

13 MR. LYON: About 3-1/2 hours ago, and that was -- he 14 told me that at 2:15.

15 THE COURT: When did you first find out about this?

16 MR. LYON: I got a text at 12:01, I believe.

17 THE COURT: And when did you first let the Trustee
18 know?

19 MR. LYON: I called when -- immediately when I got the 20 text, I then called Gerrit Pronske and let him know. In fact,
21 I actually forwarded the e-mail directly to him. The text
22 message. His text came to me 12:01.

23 THE COURT: Okay. When did you let the Trustee know?

24 MR. LYON: I passed that on to Gerrit at 1:01, because 25 that's when I actually received it.

1 THE COURT: I asked the Trustee. That's --

2 MR. LYON: I have not --

3 THE COURT: -- this guy over here.

4 MR. LYON: -- let the Trustee know. I let --

5 THE COURT: You didn't --

6 MR. LYON: I did not let the Trustee -- I let Gerrit
7 know, because Gerrit was my contact that I'm going through, and 8 Gerrit was in constant communication.

9 THE COURT: When did anyone let the Trustee know? I'm 10 sorry. I lost that along the way. When was the Trustee
11 notified?

12 MR. URBANIK: John MacPete and I spoke about 1:15.
13 But Gerrit had --

14 THE COURT: You were never called by Gerrit --

15 MR. URBANIK: No.

16 THE COURT: -- or Mr. Lyon?

17 MR. LYON: I called John, though, as well. So I did
18 let John know.

19 THE COURT: Why didn't you let the Trustee know?

20 MR. LYON: I did try to call him. I've got a text
21 that I tried to call him, where I tried to call him, but I did
22 not get a hold of him. I called his office. I did not leave a
23 voicemail.

24 THE COURT: You tried calling his office but left no
25 message or voicemail?

1 MR. LYON: He was -- they said he was not available.
2 So then I called John MacPete. That was at 1:14.

3 THE COURT: You called Mr. Sherman or you called Mr.
4 Urbanik?

5 MR. LYON: Called Mr. Urbanik. Did not call the 6 Trustee.

7 THE COURT: You know, the Trustee has raised the issue
8 of your client ought to be a little bit worried about tax
9 ramifications, I guess, for him exercising -- what is the right
10 way to say this? -- so much control over a separate legal 11 entity trust. Is this really worth it for $75,000? I mean,
12 not only is your client incurring more and more attorney's fees
13 over this $75,000 issue, but no doubt a tax problem would be so 14 much more than $75,000. Your response to that?

15 MR. LYON: Your Honor, I have none, having already 16 mentioned that to Jeff. Gerrit has mentioned that to Jeff as 17 well. Has, in fact, not just mentioned it to him. Been very 18 strong in our comments to Jeff about that. So --

19 THE COURT: Yet you're still down here advocating.

20 All right. Well, let me get verification from you on this.
21 I first was hearing that your client wants the Court to decide
22 the pricing based on evidence I hear, and then he'd live with 23 what the Court does. He'd sign the settlement agreement but 24 let the Court decide the pricing and he'd live with that. And 25 then I heard that, no, he wants the ability, if he doesn't like

1 what the Court decides, to use a different registrar.

2 That's a key issue here for the Trustee, that he continues
3 to register these names until every last part of the settlement
4 is completed. Correct? Correct, Mr. Sherman? Correct, Mr.
5 Urbanik?

6 MR. URBANIK: Yes. Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: So what is the position of your client?

8 MR. LYON: The position of the client is that the 9 agreement was originally to make sure the Trustee had the 10 monetization stream from Blue Horizons, and that monetization,
11 the Trustee has a document to show that that is a positive cash 12 flow. But additionally is to comply, to make sure that we 13 comply with ICANN regulations. And then looking at making sure 14 the Trustee doesn't lose money, as the Trustee very -- 15 presented, I'm sure, today, that they're paying for Jeff's
16 health care, and that seems to be necessary today. But that 17 going above the $8.29 rate was high, especially when you're 18 talking about bulk reregistrations or renewals of domain names.
19 And a businessperson, I think, would be remiss to not seek the 20 best pricing for his product, where he has to place it, because 21 that ultimately is the bottom line of how much income he makes 22 or how much he loses.

23 Will Jeff be bound by whatever the price this Court sets?
24 Yes, he will. Will ICANN be bound? ICANN? Will ICANN -- will 25 the Trustee then place ICANN and VeriSign with those policies

1 and procedures that they then are in violation of? I'm at this
2 point letting them be that way, because the policy and the 3 regulations say that a registrar cannot infringe upon the 4 registrant's right to transfer a name and register it wherever 5 he has -- he wants to, other than --

6 THE COURT: Isn't the registrant the Village Trust?

7 MR. LYON: The registrant is the Village -- well, it
8 would be Novo Point and Quantec.

9 THE COURT: They agree. They agree to the pricing.
10 So how's it going to be violating VeriSign and ICANN
11 regulations?

12 MR. LYON: Well, let me -- on the pricing, it's on the 13 transfer of the names, to alienate the right to transfer a name
14 from one registrar to another. For instance, Ondova to 15 GoDaddy. By putting that in the agreement, it still violates 16 ICANN regulations, to put that in an agreement. Now, if 17 they're willing to do that, then they can deal with ICANN. I
18 don't have to. It's not my issue.

19 THE COURT: Yes. It's his issue.

20 MR. LYON: It will become his issue.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. LYON: So the Court is right on point there. I
23 just wanted to make sure the Court understood --

25 MR. LYON: -- Jeff's position.

1 THE COURT: I still didn't get an answer to my
2 question. Or, I think I did get an answer to my question. I
3 guess I need to double-check I got an answer to my question.
4 Mr. Baron is willing to live with whatever I decide on the 5 pricing issue? He is going to sign the settlement agreement?

6 MR. LYON: That's correct.

7 THE COURT: He's not going to insist that he has the 8 right to tell the trusts to use a different registrar?

9 MR. LYON: He doesn't even have that right now.

10 THE COURT: Well, okay. You and Mr. Pronske need to 11 get on the same page, then.

12 MR. LYON: Well, --

13 THE COURT: Because that was --

14 MR. LYON: He doesn't have the right to tell the 15 trusts or the LLCs what they can do. We've gone -- the Court
16 just, again, re-emphasized that issue to me. Jeff runs a great
17 risk if he exercises --

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. LYON: -- that kind of control.

20 THE COURT: So the Court will decide, and that's it?
21 That's it?

22 MR. LYON: That's it.

23 THE COURT: He will sign the settlement agreement. If 24 I say it's $8.94 or $8.29 or somewhere in between, --

25 MR. LYON: Somewhere in between. Exactly.

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, Mr. Pronske, do you know
2 why you all are saying two different things?

3 MR. PRONSKE: Your Honor, I won't take issue with what 4 Mr. Lyon said. If the Court rules, we'll live by the Court's
5 ruling on the pricing.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Well, then, thinking through this,
7 this is what seems to make sense, unless I'm missing something.
8 Mr. MacPete, are you willing to accept an affidavit on the 9 Belton Trust language issues from Mr. Baron or --

10 MR. MACPETE: I think, really, that's up to Your Honor
11 and the manner in which Your Honor would take the proffer.
12 We're asking the Court to make the finding, and if Your Honor
13 is okay with a proffer from him in affidavit form, I'm okay
14 with that, as opposed to taking him live. I think that 15 basically it's up to Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Is anybody not okay with that? Because 17 here's what I'm thinking. If we get an affidavit from him
18 confirming, swearing to the things Mr. MacPete outlined that 19 he's going to sign, however -- or that he's going to sign as 20 the trustee of the Belton Trust and he agrees that Jay Kline's
21 the manager of Domain Jamboree, whatever. I'm not going to 22 repeat everything you said. If he will sign under a notary
23 oath an affidavit confirming all of those things, can't we have 24 that in place -- that could be filed with the Court, and then 25 can't we have a provision in Paragraph 6(c) that says the

1 parties agree that the Court will decide the appropriate
2 pricing under the domain name renewal agreement and the parties
3 will live with whatever the decision of the Court is, and 4 everybody signs the settlement agreement, we go forward, and we
5 have a hearing in 25 days or whatever on whether it's going to 6 be $8.29, $8.94, or somewhere in between? Am I missing
7 something?

8 MR. URBANIK: Your Honor, there's a payment due August
9 1st. We billed them at the $8.94. You know, the trusts agreed
10 to our price. So that about the only, you know, housekeeping
11 thing is that there would be one payment coming due. It's not
12 a huge payment, it's under $50,000, but I think the Trustee
13 would like to get those monies in on or about August 1st. So 14 the sooner the hearing, the better.

15 THE COURT: Okay. It's paid subject to disgorgement
16 if --

17 MR. URBANIK: Yeah.

18 THE COURT: -- the Court decides something less than 19 $8.94?

20 MR. URBANIK: Or the other way to do it is bill it at 21 $8.29, which is our floor that we're agreeing to, and then it
22 could be -- you know, the same thing, subject to the alteration
23 of that by the Court.

24 THE COURT: Well, --

25 MR. SHERMAN: And I don't have any problem with that,

1 Judge. As long as we've got the same trustee protector in
2 place, I'm quite comfortable with that. Because if the Court
3 decides that it's going to be more than $8.29, they'll just cut
4 a check. I'm not worried about that.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So the Trustee will 6 file a motion, whatever you're going to call this motion, to 7 have the Court approve the pricing under the domain name
8 renewal agreement that is part and parcel to the settlement
9 agreement. You'll fix, I guess, 6(c) --

10 MR. URBANIK: To reflect that.

11 THE COURT: -- to reflect that. Mr. MacPete will get 12 his affidavit. And then everyone's going to sign on the dotted 13 line.

14 I want to keep Mr. Baron's feet to the fire. As far as the 15 affidavit, I'm going to require that to be submitted by next 16 Tuesday, filed, provided to Mr. MacPete and the Trustee and 17 filed by next Tuesday. What's that? The twenty --

18 MR. MACPETE: Seventh.

19 THE COURT: The 27th? At 5:00 p.m. I also want proof
20 of his hospital admission by that date. And I want -- I will
21 agree that it can be filed under seal, but I want these parties
22 in interest to be able to see it. Okay? So provide a copy to 23 the Trustee and Mr. MacPete's client. I guess that should 24 suffice. And I'll go ahead and orally rule that that will be 25 filed under seal with no one else to see that without a

1 specific order of the Court. So, Brandon, remind me to do that 2 when we get back in chambers, to have that paperwork done for 3 the Clerk's Office.

4 So that's the ruling of the Court. If there is some bad-
5 enough health crisis that this can't be done by Tuesday, I'd 6 better have a motion with pretty compelling documentary
7 evidence attached to it.

8 And by the way, I'm going to do my own independent checking
9 when I get back in chambers with Plano Presbyterian. I don't
10 know what I can find out, but that's my job, to kind of police
11 the integrity of all this. So I'm just letting you all know.

12 All right. Anything else? We'll be looking for the motion
13 on the pricing hearing. Mr. MacPete?

14 MR. MACPETE: I just thought maybe, Your Honor, a 15 little bit of clarity on the thing about the hospital
16 admission. So is what you're ordering that his medical records
17 for the ER visit is what's going to be produced under seal, as 18 opposed to some kind of an affidavit from him or a note or 19 something? I think maybe some clarity on what you want will 20 help make sure you get what you want.

21 THE COURT: Well, I'm going to require an affidavit of 22 him describing in reasonable detail, you know, that he had a
23 health crisis, what it was, and it required him to be admitted
24 at such-and-such time, and he was there for however long he's 25 there. And some sort of written documentation to verify it,

1 whether it is some sort of invoice from the hospital that shows
2 his admission and when he was let go, or a doctor affidavit.
3 You know, I'm not saying exactly what it would have to be. It
4 just has to be some credible proof of that. Okay? Not a -- it
5 has to either be a sworn statement from a doctor or some other
6 credible-type admission documentation. And if I have a problem
7 with it, then I'll issue an order requiring more.

8 All right. Anything further?

9 MR. URBANIK: Your Honor, just a few things to get
10 clarification. We will file a motion, and it will be a fairly 11 short motion, to have a hearing to determine the pricing on the 12 domain name agreement. We'll do that early next week.

13 We would like to get some kind of guidance on when parties
14 have to sign the settlement agreement. If -- the change
15 regarding the domain name pricing is very easy. Instead of the 16 -- there will just be a new sentence added that indicates that 17 the pricing will be determined by the Bankruptcy Court. Should 18 be a very simple insert to the current settlement agreement.
19 This affidavit, of course, is -- needs to be, you know,
20 submitted from Mr. MacPete -- to be acceptable to him. So I
21 would suggest that either he work with Mr. Pronske, or Mr.
22 MacPete prepare it. But I don't want to see any more delays
23 after next Tuesday.

24 I would like the Court to order parties to sign the 25 settlement agreement -- we've already prepared an order, and

1 what I did in my order, which I brought with me, is have
2 everyone sign by next Tuesday, the 27th. Because I was 3 concerned about Mr. Baron or other parties not being prompt in 4 signing the settlement agreement. I can present an order with 5 today's rulings, I mean, this afternoon. So I could present an 6 order. And I've circulated my former order. Mr. MacPete has a
7 few more comments. So, my order, I would like to have that 8 date where everyone has to sign.

9 So, I'm going to do an order to approve today's, you know,
10 the settlement agreement with the changes today, which I can 11 upload. But I'd like this date for everyone to sign the 12 settlement agreement.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. MacPete?

14 MR. MACPETE: With respect to that, Your Honor, I
15 mean, I think most of the major parties -- like, my clients,
16 that's not a problem. I can have them sign again by Tuesday.
17 I understand that Mr. Perry's former clients, because he's not 18 representing them anymore -- he's here watching -- but, anyway, 19 his principal client is in Israel, like on a kibbutz. So,
20 like, when I've tried to communicate with him, it's I send him
21 an e-mail and I get a response back days later.

22 So I would just want the Court to be aware that, with some 23 of the outlying parties, there may be an issue about whether or 24 not the various principal parties can get signatures from them
25 in the time period that Mr. Urbanik has suggested. I'll do my

1 best to get signatures from Mr. Perry's clients, but I would
2 just want the Court to be aware that there may be some
3 logistical issues with sort of the outliers.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Urbanik -- Mr. Perry, do
5 you want to say something, or --

6 MR. PERRY: No, I just wanted to point out he's 7 actually traveling. I don't think he's still in Israel. But I
8 can find out when he's going to be back.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, maybe we need to have 10 this in kind of two stages, that Baron, Ondova, Manila/
11 NetSphere, the trusts, or I guess at least the Village Trust,
12 the Taube clients, sign by Wednesday.

13 MR. URBANIK: Okay.

14 THE COURT: I'm thinking we'll push it back one day
15 because of the kind of two-step, the affidavit that we need.
16 And -- or affidavits. And then what is a realistic deadline
17 for these various people in international places? August 1st?

18 MR. URBANIK: I was going to say a week from today or,
19 you know, next Friday.

20 THE COURT: The 30th? July 30th?

21 MR. PERRY: I think he was in Israel when he sent the 22 signature page to the earlier agreement, so --

23 MR. URBANIK: So has he already signed it?

24 MR. PERRY: I had thought, it was my understanding
25 that he had sent to you Fed Ex from Jerusalem --

1 MR. URBANIK: The old --

2 MR. PERRY: But it was a previous version. In other
3 words, I don't think that a week is outlandish. I expect --

4 THE COURT: Okay. Let's make it Friday, July 30th,
5 then.

6 MR. URBANIK: Okay.

7 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Urbanik, were you
8 envisioning that what you're going to upload today or tomorrow
9 is an order approving the settlement, --

10 MR. URBANIK: Yes.

11 THE COURT: -- but also having these extra
12 requirements worked in, that Baron, Ondova, Manila/NetSphere,
13 the trusts will sign it, --

14 MR. URBANIK: Uh-huh.

15 THE COURT: -- the settlement agreement, and --

16 MR. URBANIK: Sign the settlement agreement, yes.

17 THE COURT: -- by Wednesday the 28th at 5:00 p.m.?

18 You're going to put in there that the two affidavits have to be 19 supplied --

20 MR. URBANIK: Okay.

21 THE COURT: -- by Tuesday, what would that be, the 22 27th, at 5:00 p.m. The affidavit with regard to the Belton
23 Trust and the affidavit with regard to his --

24 MR. URBANIK: Medical emergency.

25 THE COURT: -- health crisis.

1 MR. URBANIK: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: And then you're going to put in there that
3 the Trustee will be filing a motion to decide --

4 MR. URBANIK: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And that -- anything else?

6 MR. URBANIK: No. The order has been being circulated
7 for a couple days now. Again, Mr. MacPete has a few comments.
8 But there have been very few comments to it.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. URBANIK: So no one should be surprised with these 11 new things. So should be able to upload it by tomorrow.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. MacPete?

13 MR. MACPETE: My comments that he's talking about 14 related to the agreement on the Belton Trust and the findings
15 that we wanted the Court to make. So what I would propose is 16 that the order that he's going to upload would reflect the 17 Court's acceptance of the affidavit and making of the finding,
18 assuming that the affidavit is acceptable. And then if for 19 some reason Your Honor didn't think the affidavit was 20 acceptable, then I guess you wouldn't sign the order and you
21 would set another status conference or something to deal with 22 whatever the problem was.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Well, we've got a chicken and egg
24 issue, then, because he's wanting an order that, among other
25 things, orders people to sign the settlement agreement by next

1 Wednesday and upload the affidavits by next Tuesday, but then
2 you're saying there would --

3 MR. MACPETE: Your Honor, I would hope there wasn't a
4 problem with the affidavit, but obviously Your Honor has to be 5 comfortable in making the finding in the order approving the 6 settlement that resolves this issue.

7 THE COURT: And the finding will actually -- findings
8 will actually be these various statements that he's going to 9 swear to --

10 MR. MACPETE: Correct.

11 THE COURT: -- in the affidavit?

12 MR. MACPETE: That Jeffrey Baron is the trustee of the 13 Belton Trust. That all the beneficiaries of the Belton Trust
14 are signing the settlement agreement and desire that the Belton
15 Trust be bound by the settlement agreement. That the only 16 asset in which the Belton Trust has any interest of any kind is 17 Domain Jamboree, LLC, and that the only assets in which Domain
18 Chamber, LLC has any interest of any kind is the domain name
19 DomainJamboree.com, its accreditation agreement with ICANN, and 20 the registry agreement with VeriSign. And then the final one
21 was that Jay Kline is the current manager of Domain Jamboree,
22 LLC and is authorized to sign the settlement agreement on 23 behalf of Domain Jamboree, LLC.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I had understood that he has 25 agreed to all of these facts. You wanted it in the form of

1 sworn testimony, but outside the courtroom he has agreed to all
2 this. True?

3 MR. MACPETE: Yes. Mr. Lyon?

4 THE COURT: Okay. And then we can get Mr. Lyon's --
5 the record will reflect you're shaking your head. Your client
6 has agreed to all of these things regarding Belton outside the 7 courtroom. True?

8 MR. LYON: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: True.

10 MR. LYON: In fact, we're also trying to locate Jay 11 Kline for the Court as well. The last time we heard, he was in 12 jail.

13 MR. URBANIK: Is he a signer?

14 A VOICE: He wants him to be a signer.

15 THE COURT: Do we need Jay Kline to sign this?

16 MR. MACPETE: Yeah, there's a signature box for Domain
17 Jamboree, LLC. I wasn't aware that he may be in jail.

18 THE COURT: Where is he in jail?

19 MR. LYON: I just got secondhand information. I'm 20 trying to find out where. And so I didn't want -- other than 21 John MacPete's requirement, I'm not going to leave John MacPete
22 hanging. I'm going to try to find Jay Kline. See exactly what 23 jail, where he's at, and I'm going to try to find him, if I
24 have to go visit the jail.

25 THE COURT: Do you really need Jay Kline's signature?

1 MR. MACPETE: I would take Mr. Baron's signature on
2 behalf of Domain Jamboree. I mean, because he -- as the 3 trustee of Belton Trust, which is the sole owner or member of 4 the LLC, I think he could bind the LLC. So I suppose if Mr.
5 Kline is not available as the current manager, I'm okay with 6 the trustee. So, I didn't know this was a problem till just 7 now.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So let's leave nothing unresolved.
9 We --

10 MR. URBANIK: I'd like to get clarification on who's 11 drafting the affidavit for Mr. Baron. Mr. MacPete or Mr.
12 Pronske?

13 THE COURT: Who's drafting that?

14 MR. PRONSKE: Your Honor, some of this just strikes
15 me, if we're all agreeing to this, it sounds like a 16 stipulation. And if we're making a stipulation on behalf of 17 our clients, do we need an affidavit? I don't think so.
18 People stipulate to facts all the time. And it sounds like 19 everyone's in agreement with the facts, so can't we call this a 20 stipulation?

21 THE COURT: We're wanting something a little bit
22 stronger under the law, like a sworn oath, you know. I think
23 it's probably not unreasonable. What I'm worried about,
24 though, is this Jay Kline thing.

25 Where'd you get your secondhand information that he's in

1 jail?

2 MR. LYON: That was actually passed to Jeff last night
3 when I dropped him off about 8:30 last night. He wasn't 4 feeling well then, but I asked him, I said, "John provided the 5 information that Jay Kline is now a manager." So I asked Jeff
6 if he knew where Jay Kline was, and Jeff said the last time he
7 heard where Jay Kline, Jay Kline was in jail. He did not say
8 where or how he found out that he was.

9 THE COURT: Or what he's in jail for?

10 MR. LYON: He did not say that, either. Sometimes
11 it's just: Don't ask.

12 MR. MACPETE: Your Honor, Mr. --

13 THE COURT: I ask anyone.

14 MR. MACPETE: Mr. Kline is a lawyer.

15 THE COURT: That's just my nature. What?

16 MR. MACPETE: Mr. Kline is a lawyer licensed in Texas,
17 at least the last time that I checked. So I would hope that if 18 he's in jail, it was, you know, a speeding ticket or something
19 like that. In other words, I'm not expecting that he's in jail
20 for something bad, so to speak. But --

21 THE COURT: How can you possibly conjecture that it
22 was only a speeding ticket? Okay. This is just -- there is 23 just no adjective for this, is there? All right. Okay. So 24 let's -- it's going to be an affidavit, and you're going to 25 accept the settlement agreement not being signed by Jeff Kline,

1 correct?

2 MR. MACPETE: If Mr. Baron signs as the -- on behalf
3 of Domain Jamboree, I'm okay with that.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Lyon or Mr. Pronske, do you
5 know of any reason why your client would not sign on behalf of 6 Domain Jamboree if Jay Kline is unavailable as the manager to 7 sign?

8 MR. LYON: Sign --

9 THE COURT: That was a question.

10 MR. LYON: Jay Kline got his authority from someplace,
11 so we're going to have -- if Jay Kline is unavailable, we're 12 going to have Jeff sign it.

13 THE COURT: Your client, Jeff, will sign for Domain
14 Jamboree if Jay Kline cannot sign by Wednesday? He'll sign
15 next Wednesday by 5:00 o'clock if Jay Kline cannot sign? Yes
16 or no?

17 MR. LYON: Your Honor, I can't make that 18 representation right now. I would be lying to the Court if I
19 did.

20 THE COURT: All right. We're going to take a five-
21 minute break. I want you to try to get your client to respond
22 to a text message. I mean, if he was in there waiting around 23 for x-rays and using the computer of the hospital, which is 24 pretty strange to me, then maybe he can respond to text
25 messages. I want to get his confirmation on this.

1 MR. LYON: I will send him an e-mail. He can get e-
2 mails. He cannot get texts. I couldn't. I checked the phone
3 in the hallway with mine. I couldn't get texts. I couldn't 4 hear the phone. There's no service. He's in Room 4 -- 23 of 5 the emergency room.

6 THE COURT: Oh, he's in Room 423?

7 MR. LYON: Room 23.

8 THE COURT: Room 23?

9 MR. LYON: Yes. Yes, Your Honor. I wanted to provide 10 that as well. But I can send him an e-mail.

11 THE COURT: Emergency Room 23?

12 MR. LYON: That's correct.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Send him an e-mail. We're going to 14 take a five-minute break. I'm going to look for Mr. Jay Kline
15 during the five-minute break.

16 THE CLERK: All rise.

17 (A recess ensued from 3:39 p.m. until 3:52 p.m.)

18 THE COURT: Please be seated. We're going back on the 19 record in Ondova.

20 It was longer than a five-minute break, but it was a
21 productive break for me. We're looking for Mr. MacPete, Mr.
22 Pronske? There is Mr. MacPete. Where is Mr. Pronske?

23 MR. MACPETE: I've been told he had to leave.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Brandon, take note. I'll talk to 25 you about that later. I didn't give Mr. Pronske permission to

1 leave, but that's another issue.

2 I don't know what you were able to find out during your
3 break, Mr. Lyon. You go first. What did you find out? Then
4 I'll tell you what I found out.

5 MR. LYON: Your Honor, I wasn't able to get hold of 6 him other than -- like I said, again, no cell service, and I
7 checked that. That's where I'm at right now.

8 THE COURT: He's not answering his phone? He's not
9 responding to texts or answering his phone?

10 MR. LYON: It's actually dead. It shows dead. When 11 you call it, it immediately rolls to voicemail, so that says
12 somebody's phone's either not within --

13 THE COURT: Or turned off.

14 MR. LYON: Correct.

15 THE COURT: Doesn't mean it's dead. He's turned it
16 off.

17 He has been discharged from Plano Presbyterian, according 18 to Vanessa.

19 MR. LYON: Okay.

20 THE COURT: Michelle. Vanessa. Now we've got Vanessa
21 saying he was discharged. And discharged with a doctor's note,
22 she said, or a note. So he's got some sort of note. So that 23 was a pretty fast in-and-out with the emergency room, wasn't
24 it? Well, I'm -- you know, by my experience.

25 MR. LYON: I've had kidney stones, Your Honor, and

1 I've been in there 12 hours, so I've never had --

2 THE COURT: I just, you know, I --

3 MR. LYON: I've never done well with the emergency
4 room, so I --

5 THE COURT: Yes. That's a remarkably --

6 A VOICE: Quick.

7 MR. LYON: Actually, --

8 THE COURT: Well, you know, I don't know. Just, in my 9 experience, you're not usually that lucky getting in and out in 10 less than four hours, unless maybe it was not so bad after all.

11 A VOICE: Stitches.

12 THE COURT: Stitches?

13 A VOICE: Stitches for boys, I've gotten in and out at 14 four hours with stitches.

15 THE COURT: Oh, really? Okay.

16 A VOICE: But not always. Not always.

17 THE COURT: Yes. I don't think -- yes. And, well,
18 all right. But usually, if it's heart, --

19 A VOICE: Right. No.

20 THE COURT: If it's any chance it's heart, they keep 21 you overnight.

22 A VOICE: Absolutely.

23 THE COURT: So we'll see what the affidavit and note
24 says. But he's outside of the bad reception of the hospital
25 now. He has been discharged. So hopefully that means you can

1 have a conversation with him pretty quickly after you leave
2 today.

3 As for Mr. Jay Kline, Jr., he got two years of probation
4 for possession of a controlled substance here in Dallas County,
5 originally charged with third-degree felony, but his probation
6 was on a reduced Class A misdemeanor, I guess, right? Right,
7 Brandon?

8 THE CLERK: Yes.

9 THE COURT: So, anyway, his probation started November
10 12, 2009. It was the 194th District Court of Dallas County
11 that imposed this probationary term on him, two years beginning
12 November 12, 2009. So if he's in jail, then maybe he did
13 something to violate his probation. I don't know. That's all
14 we could quickly turn up. But, you know, their records are not 15 always as quick and easy to find over there in the state courts
16 as we're used to in the federal courts. And then with that 17 flood, I don't know if that could have -- but, anyway, that's 18 what we're able to find.

19 He's a disbarred lawyer, or a -- is that the right way to 20 describe it? His -- or maybe that his law license is 21 suspended. I should say it that way. I don't -- anyway, for a
22 list of things.

23 All right. Well, so we're going to get this affidavit.
24 Who's -- I was going to firm up that Mr. Pronske is drafting
25 the affidavit. Is he drafting -- is that what we decided?

1 MR. MACPETE: I'll draft it, Your Honor. I mean, I
2 created the original language, and all it is is we're
3 redrafting an affidavit --

4 THE COURT: No. I mean, you're doing Belton. You're
5 doing the Belton affidavit. But the health --

6 MR. MACPETE: Oh, that health --

7 THE COURT: The health issue affidavit, who's -- Mr.
8 Lyon, it's going to be you, I guess, because it's not -- since
9 Mr. Pronske left without permission, which is another issue
10 I'll get to another day, it's your responsibility. Okay?

11 MR. LYON: I will do --

12 THE COURT: Okay. And just, I feel the extra need to 13 say, you know, Mr. MacPete probably brought up a very good
14 point earlier that maybe I was too quick to move on from. I
15 want to know it's more than a stomach ache, okay? So I want
16 some detail of what the problem was and what had to be done.
17 Okay? And again, it will be under seal. I'll do an order, so 18 he doesn't have to worry about privacy concerns. But the 19 Trustee and Manila/NetSphere get to see it.

20 All right. I'm worried about this Kline issue. Here's 21 what I'm thinking about doing. You wouldn't agree that he'll 22 sign it for Domain Jamboree, but Mr. MacPete, I'm inclined to 23 direct you to put in that affidavit that if Mr. Klein is 24 incarcerated or otherwise -- or his signature otherwise cannot 25 be obtained by -- what is the deadline? We put in place

1 Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. Well, but we just made that for -- it
2 otherwise cannot be obtained by the July 30th deadline I gave
3 for everyone else except Manila/NetSphere -- Baron and Ondova
4 and the trust -- then Baron is directed by the Court to sign on 5 behalf of Domain Jamboree. I'll just --

6 MR. MACPETE: Okay. I'm confused, Your Honor. You
7 want that in the order that Mr. Urbanik is doing, or you want
8 me to put in the affidavit that he's acknowledging that he's 9 been ordered to sign?

10 THE COURT: Actually, it makes more sense to put it in 11 the order, I suppose. Good thought. Okay. All right.
12 Anything else?

13 Mr. Sherman, how many Chapter 7 cases do you have, or how 14 many cases are you the trustee in? This is not Chapter 7. How 15 many cases are you trustee in?

16 MR. SHERMAN: In -- as a Chapter 11?

17 THE COURT: How -- no. How many cases are you the 18 trustee in? 7 or 11. 7 and 11.

19 MR. SHERMAN: I have no idea. I'm -- I mean, --

20 THE COURT: 800? 900? A thousand?

21 MR. SHERMAN: Maybe.

22 THE COURT: I'm just wondering when you have time to 23 work on the others.

24 MR. SHERMAN: Yeah. Just the --

25 THE COURT: Okay. I guess I should ask everyone else

1 when you have time to work on your other cases, too, right?

2 MR. URBANIK: With respect to the order for this
3 attorney Jay Kline, I guess we'll -- maybe we should set a
4 deadline. If Mr. MacPete or if nobody can locate him by Monday
5 at 5:00 p.m., you know, I think that maybe if we could have
6 some deadline for us to find Jay Kline.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Well, maybe what I said doesn't
8 work neatly. What I said was I thought we were going to have 9 in that order that everyone has to sign by July 30th.

10 MR. URBANIK: Yes.

11 THE COURT: I mean, Baron and NetSphere and Manila and 12 Ondova and Village Trust, they are signing by next Wednesday at 13 5:00. All of these other, you know, faraway people, you have 14 till July 30th at 5:00 p.m. But if Jay Kline cannot be -- his 15 signature cannot be obtained by July 30th at 5:00 p.m., then
16 Baron shall sign for him, or for Domain Jamboree, by July 30th
17 at 5:00 p.m. Is that too awkward?

18 MR. URBANIK: No. I think --

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. MACPETE: No. I think that works, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. MACPETE: Because, I mean, obviously, Mr. Lyon is 23 going to be the one looking for Mr. Kline. If he doesn't find 24 him, he's going to know that he has to have a signature from 25 Mr. Baron by 5:00 o'clock on the 30th.

1 THE COURT: Yes. If not, stop by Lew Sterrett on your
2 way home. I mean, I'm just guessing. We got some pretty
3 specific information. Although he had child support problems
4 also, according to his State Bar entry, so maybe that's the 5 issue.

6 All right. Anything else?

7 (No response.)

8 THE COURT: All right. I'll be looking for your 9 order.

10 (Proceedings concluded at 4:03 p.m.)

CIVIL ACTION NO. 3-09CV0988-F

ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER

The Court hereby appoints a receiver and imposes an ancillary relief to assist the receiver as follows:

APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Peter S. Vogel is appointed Receiver for Defendant Jeffrey Baron with the full power of an equity receiver. The Receiver shall be entitled to possession and control over all Receivership Assets, Receivership Parties and Receivership Documents as defined herein, and shall be entitled to exercise all powers granted herein.

RECEIVERSHIP PARTIES, ASSETS, AND RECORDS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court hereby takes exclusive jurisdiction over, and grants the Receiver exclusive control over, any and all "Receivership Parties", which term shall include Jeffrey Baron and the following entities:

- Village Trust, a Cook Islands Trust
- Equity Trust Company IRA 19471
- Daystar Trust, a Texas Trust
- Belton Trust, a Texas Trust
- Novo Point, Inc., a USVI Corporation
- Iguana Consulting, Inc., a USVI Corporation
- Quantec, Inc., a USVI Corporation
- Shiloh, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company
- Novquant, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company

Manassas, LLC, a Texas Limited Liability Company
Domain Jamboree, LLC, a Wyoming Limited Liability Company
ID Genesis, LLC, a Utah Limited Liability Company

and any entity under the direct or indirect control of Jeffrey Baron, whether by virtue of ownership, beneficial interest, a position as officer, director, power of attorney or any other authority or right to act. The Court hereby enjoins any person from taking any action based upon any presently existing directive from any person other than the Receiver with regard to the affairs and business of the Receivership Parties, including but not limited to proceeding with the transfer of a portfolio of internet domain names ("Domain Names") for which Ondova Limited Company ("Ondova") acted as registrar. Specifically, but without limitation, VeriSign Inc and The Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers ("ICANN"), and any other entity connected to the transfer of the Domain Names, shall immediately cease such efforts and shall terminate any movement of the Domain Names.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court hereby takes exclusive jurisdiction over, and grants the Receiver exclusive control over, any and all "Receivership Assets", which term shall include any and all legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property (including "goods," "instruments," "equipment," "fixtures," "general intangibles," "inventory," "checks," or "notes" (as these terms are defined in the Uniform Commercial Code)), lines of credit, chattels, leaseholds, contracts, mail or other deliveries, shares of stock, lists of consumer names, accounts, credits, premises, receivables, funds, and all cash, wherever located, and further including any legal or equitable interest in any trusts, corporations, partnerships, or other legal entities of any nature, that are:

1. owned, controlled, or held by, in whole or in part, for the benefit of, or subject to access by, or belonging to, any Receivership Party;
2. in the actual or constructive possession of any Receivership Party; or
3. in the actual or constructive possession of, or owned, controlled, or held by, or subject to access by, or belonging to, any other corporation, partnership, trust, or any other entity directly or indirectly owned, managed, or controlled by, or under common control with, any Receivership Party, including, but not limited to, any assets held by or for any Receivership Party in any account at any bank or savings and loan institution, or with any credit card processing agent, automated clearing house processor, network transaction processor, bank debit processing agent, customer service agent, commercial mail receiving agency, or mail holding or forwarding company, or any credit union, retirement fund custodian, money market or mutual fund, storage company, trustee, or with any broker-dealer, escrow agent, title company, commodity trading company, precious metal dealer, or other financial institution or depository of any kind, either within or outside of the State of Texas.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver shall be entitled to any document that any Receivership Party is entitled to possess as of the signing of this order ("Receivership Documents").

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all persons who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise are hereby restrained and enjoined from:

A. Transferring, liquidating, converting, encumbering, pledging, loaning, selling, concealing, dissipating, disbursing, assigning, spending, withdrawing, granting a lien or security interest or other interest in, or otherwise disposing of any Receivership Assets.

B. Opening or causing to be opened any safe deposit boxes, commercial mail boxes, or storage facilities titled in the name of any Receivership Party, or subject to access by any Receivership Party or under any Receivership Party's control, without providing the Receiver prior notice and an opportunity to inspect the contents in order to determine that they contain no assets covered by this Section;

C. Cashing any checks or depositing any payments from customers or clients of a Receivership Party;

D. Incurring charges or cash advances on any credit card issued in the name, singly or jointly, of any Receivership Party; or

E. Incurring liens or encumbrances on real property, personal property, or other assets in the name, singly or jointly, of any Receivership Party or of any corporation, partnership, or other entity directly or indirectly owned, managed, or controlled by any Receivership Party.

F. The funds, property, and assets affected by this Order shall include both existing assets and assets acquired after the effective date of this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any financial institution, business entity, or person maintaining or having custody or control of any account or other asset of any Receivership Party, or any corporation, partnership, or other entity directly or indirectly owned, managed, or controlled by, or under common control with any Receivership Party, which is served with a copy of this Order, or otherwise has actual or constructive knowledge of this Order, shall:

A. Hold and retain within its control and prohibit the withdrawal, removal, assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance, disbursement, dissipation, conversion, sale, liquidation, or other disposal of any of the assets, funds, documents, or other property held by, or under its control:

1. on behalf of, or for the benefit of, any Receivership Party;
2. in any account maintained in the name of, or for the benefit of, or subject to withdrawal by, any Receivership Party; and
3. that are subject to access or use by, or under the signatory power of, any Receivership Party.

B. Deny any person other than the Receiver or his designee access to any safe deposit boxes or storage facilities that are either:

1. titled in the name, individually or jointly, of any Receivership Party; or
2. subject to access by any Receivership Party.

C. Provide the Receiver an immediate statement setting forth:

1. The identification number of each account or asset titled in the name, individually or jointly, of any Receivership Party, or held on behalf thereof, or for the benefit thereof, including all trust accounts managed on behalf of any Receivership Party or subject to any Receivership Party's control;

2. The balance of each such account, or a description of the nature and value of such asset;

3. The identification and location of any safe deposit box, commercial mail box, or storage facility that is either titled in the name, individually or jointly, of any Receivership Party, whether in whole or in part; and

4. If the account, safe deposit box, storage facility, or other asset has been closed or removed, the date closed or removed and the balance on said date.

D. Immediately provide the Receiver with copies of all records or other documentation pertaining to each such account or asset, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, corporate resolutions, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs; and

E. Immediately honor any requests by the Receiver with regard to transfers of assets to the Receiver or as the Receiver may direct.

DUTIES OF DEFENDANTS REGARDING ASSETS AND DOCUMENTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants shall:

A. Within three business days following service of this Order, take such steps as are necessary to turn over control to the Receiver and repatriate to the Northern District of Texas all Receivership Documents and Receivership Assets that are located outside of the Northern District of Texas and are held by or for the Receivership Parties or are under the Receivership Parties' direct or indirect control, jointly, severally, or individually;

B. Within three business days following service of this Order, provide Plaintiff and the Receiver with a full accounting of all Receivership Documents and Receivership Assets wherever located, whether such Documents or Assets held by or for any Receivership Party or are under any Receivership Party's direct or indirect control, jointly, severally, or individually, including the addresses and names of any foreign or domestic financial institution or other entity holding the Receivership Documents and Receivership Assets, along with the account numbers and balances; and

D. Immediately following service of this Order, provide Plaintiff and the Receiver access to Defendants' records and Documents held by Financial Institutions or other entities, wherever located.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver shall immediately present a sworn statement that he will perform his duties faithfully and shall post a cash deposit or bond in the amount of $1,000.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in addition to all powers granted in equity to receivers, the Receiver shall immediately have the following express powers and duties:

A. To have immediate access to any business premises of the Receivership Party, and immediate access to any other location where the Receivership Party has conducted business and where property or business records are likely to be located.

B. To assume full control of the Receivership Party by removing, as the Receiver deems necessary or advisable, any director, officer, independent contractor, employee or agent of the Receivership Party, including any Defendant, from control of, management of, or participation in, the affairs of the Receivership Party;

C. To take exclusive custody, control, and possession of all assets and documents of, or in the possession, custody or under the control of, the Receivership Party, wherever situated, including without limitation all paper documents and all electronic data and devices that contain or store electronic data including but not limited to computers, laptops, data storage devices, back-up tapes, DVDs, CDs, and thumb drives and all other external storage devices and, as to equipment in the possession or under the control of the Receivership Parties, all PDAs, smart phones, cellular telephones, and similar devices issued or paid for by the Receivership Party.

D. To act on behalf of the Receivership Party and, subject to further order of the Court, to have the full power and authority to take all corporate actions, including but not limited to, the filing of a petition for bankruptcy as the authorized responsible person as to the Receivership Party, dissolution of the Receivership Party, and sale of the Receivership Party.

E. To divert mail.

F. To sue for, collect, receive, take in possession, hold, and manage all assets and documents of the Receivership Party and other persons or entities whose interests are now held by or under the direction, possession, custody or control of the Receivership Party.

G. To investigate, conserve, hold, and manage all Receivership Assets, and perform all acts necessary or advisable to preserve the value of those assets in an effort to prevent any irreparable loss, damage or injury to consumers or to creditors of the Receivership Party including, but not limited to, obtaining an accounting of the assets, and preventing transfer, withdrawal or misapplication of assets.

H. To enter into contracts and purchase insurance as advisable or necessary.

I. To prevent the inequitable distribution of assets and determine, adjust, and protect the interests of creditors who have transacted business with the Receivership Party.

J. To manage and administer the business of the Receivership Party until further order of this Court by performing all incidental acts that the Receiver deems to be advisable or necessary, which include retaining, hiring, or dismissing any employees, independent contractors, or agents.

K. To choose, engage, and employ attorneys, accountants, appraisers, and other independent contractors and technical specialists (collectively, "Professionals"), as each Receiver deems advisable or necessary in the performance of duties and responsibilities under the authority granted by this Order.

L. To make payments and disbursements from the receivership estate that are necessary or advisable for carrying out the directions of, or exercising the authority granted by, this Order.

M. To institute, compromise, adjust, defend, appear in, intervene in, or become party to such actions or proceedings in state, federal or foreign courts that each Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve or recover the assets of the Receivership Party or that each Receiver deems necessary and advisable to carry out the Receiver's mandate under this Order, including but not limited to, the filing of a petition for bankruptcy.

N. To conduct investigations and to issue subpoenas to obtain documents and records pertaining to, or in aid of, the receivership, and conduct discovery in this action on behalf of the receivership estate.

O. To consent to the dissolution of the receivership in the event that the Plaintiff may compromise the claim that gave rise to the appointment of the Receiver, provided, however, that no such dissolution shall occur without a motion by the Plaintiff and service provided by the Plaintiff upon all known creditors at least thirty days in advance of any such dissolution.

LIMITATION OF RECEIVER'S LIABILITY

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that except for an act of gross negligence, the Receiver and the Professionals shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred by any of the Receivership Parties, their officers, agents, servants, employees and attorneys or any other person, by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Receiver and the Professionals in connection with the discharge of his or her duties and responsibilities. Additionally, in the event of a discharge of the Receiver either by dissolution of the receivership or order of this Court, the Receiver shall have no further duty whatsoever.

PROFESSIONAL FEES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each Receiver and his professionals, including counsel to the Receiver and accountants, are entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them, which compensation shall be derived exclusively from the assets now held by, or in the possession or control of, or which may be received by the Receivership Party or which are otherwise recovered by the Receiver, against which the Receiver shall have a first and absolute administrative expense lien. The Receiver shall file with the Court and serve on the parties a fee application with regard to any compensation to be paid to professionals prior to the payment thereof.

COOPERATION WITH RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendants and all other persons or entities served with a copy of this Order shall fully cooperate with and assist the Receiver. This cooperation and assistance shall include, but not be limited to, providing any information to the Receiver that the Receiver deems necessary to exercising the authority and discharging the responsibilities of the Receiver under this Order; providing any password required to access any computer, electronic account, or digital file or telephonic data in any medium; turning over all accounts, files, and records including those in possession or control of attorneys or accountants; and advising all persons who owe money to the Receivership Party that all debts should be paid directly to the Receiver. Defendants are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly:

- A. Transacting any of the business of the Receivership Party;

B. Destroying, secreting, defacing, transferring, or otherwise altering or disposing of any documents of the Receivership Party including, but not limited to, books, records, accounts, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video recordings, computer records, and other data compilations, electronically-stored records, or any other papers of any kind or nature;

C. Transferring, receiving, altering, selling, encumbering, pledging, assigning, liquidating, or otherwise disposing of any assets owned, controlled, or in the possession or custody of, or in which an interest is held or claimed by, the Receivership Party or the Receiver;

D. Drawing on any existing line of credit available to Receivership Party;

E. Excusing debts owed to the Receivership Party;

F. Failing to notify the Receiver of any asset, including accounts, of the Receivership Party held in any name other than the name of any of the Receivership Party, or by any person or entity other than the Receivership Party, or failing to provide any assistance or information requested by the Receiver in connection with obtaining possession, custody or control of such assets;

G. Doing any act that would, or failing to do any act which failure would, interfere with the Receiver's taking custody, control, possession, or management of the assets or documents subject to this receivership; or to harass or interfere with the Receiver in any way; or to interfere in any manner with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the assets or documents of the Receivership Party; or to refuse to cooperate with the Receiver or the Receiver's duly authorized agents in the exercise of their duties or authority under any Order of this Court; and

H. Filing, or causing to be filed, any petition on behalf of the Receivership Party for relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330 (2002), without prior permission from this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Immediately upon service of this Order upon them, or within such period as may be permitted by the Receiver, Defendants or any other person or entity shall transfer or deliver possession, custody, and control of the following to the Receiver:

1. All assets of the Receivership Party, including, without limitation, bank accounts, web sites, buildings or office space owned, leased, rented, or otherwise occupied by the Receivership Party;

2. All documents of the Receivership Party, including, but not limited to, books and records of accounts, legal files (whether held by Defendants or their counsel) all financial and accounting records, balance sheets, income statements, bank records (including monthly statements, canceled checks, records of wire transfers, and check registers), client lists, title documents, and other papers;

3. All of the Receivership Party's accounting records, tax records, and tax returns controlled by, or in the possession of, any bookkeeper, accountant, enrolled agent, licensed tax preparer or certified public accountant;

4. All loan applications made by or on behalf of Receivership Party and supporting documents held by any type of lender including, but not limited to, banks, savings and loans, thrifts or credit unions;

5. All assets belonging to members of the public now held by the Receivership Party; and

6. All keys and codes necessary to gain or secure access to any assets or documents of the Receivership Party including, but not limited to, access to their business premises, means of communication, accounts, computer systems or other property;

B. In the event any person or entity fails to deliver or transfer any asset or otherwise fails to comply with any provision of this Paragraph, the Receiver may file ex parte an Affidavit of Non-Compliance regarding the failure. Upon filing of the affidavit, the Court may authorize, without additional process or demand, Writs of Possession or Sequestration or other equitable writs requested by the Receivers. The writs shall authorize and direct the United States Marshal or any sheriff or deputy sheriff of any county, or any other federal or state law enforcement officer, to seize the asset, document or other thing and to deliver it to the Receivers.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, upon service of a copy of this Order, all banks, broker-dealers, savings and loans, escrow agents, title companies, leasing companies, landlords, ISOs, credit and debit card processing companies, insurance agents, insurance companies, commodity trading companies or any other person, including relatives, business associates or friends of the Defendants, or their subsidiaries or affiliates, holding assets of the Receivership Party or in trust for Receivership Party shall cooperate with all reasonable requests of each Receiver relating to implementation of this Order, including freezing and transferring funds at his or her direction and producing records related to the assets of the Receivership Party.

STAY OF ACTIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Except by leave of this Court, during the pendency of the receivership ordered herein, all other persons and entities aside from the Receiver are hereby stayed from taking any action to establish or enforce any claim, right, or interest for, against, on behalf of, in, or in the name of, the Receivership Party, any of their partnerships, assets, documents, or the Receiver or the Receiver's duly authorized agents acting in their capacities as such, including, but not limited to, the following actions:

1. Commencing, prosecuting, continuing, entering, or enforcing any suit or proceeding, except that such actions may be filed to toll any applicable statute of limitations;
2. Accelerating the due date of any obligation or claimed obligation; filing or enforcing any lien; taking or attempting to take possession, custody or control of any asset;

attempting to foreclose, forfeit, alter or terminate any interest in any asset, whether such acts are part of a judicial proceeding or are acts of self-help or otherwise;

3. Executing, issuing, serving or causing the execution, issuance or service of, any legal process including, but not limited to, attachments, garnishments, subpoenas, writs of replevin, writs of execution, or any other form of process whether specified in this Order or not; and

4. Doing any act or thing whatsoever to interfere with the Receiver taking custody, control, possession, or management of the assets or documents subject to this receivership, or to harass or interfere with the Receiver in any way, or to interfere in any manner with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the assets or documents of the Receivership Party;

B. This Order does not stay:

1. The commencement or continuation of a criminal action or proceeding;

and

2. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, all persons and entities in need of documentation from the Receiver shall in all instances first attempt to secure such information by submitting a formal written request to the Receiver, and, if such request has not been responded to within 30 days of receipt by the Receiver, any such person or entity may thereafter seek an Order of this Court with regard to the relief requested.

JURISDICTION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes.

Exhibit N

Texas. In making an independent consideration of the relevant issues, the Court issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law, and orders.²

A. Findings Relating to Receiver’s Fulfillment of His Duties.

1. Prior to the issuance of the Receivership Order, the Court found that Baron engaged a massive number of lawyers, accepted their services, but failed to pay them leading to those lawyers alleging claims for unpaid services (the “Former Attorney Claims”). [Docket No. 268.] It was the Court’s opinion that the pendency of the Former Attorney Claims jeopardized both the completion of the Ondova Bankruptcy, In re Ondova Limited Co., No. 09-34784-sgj-11, and of the settlement of the present action, which Baron entered into voluntarily.

2. On November 24, 2010, the Court issued its Order Appointing Receiver [Docket No. 124], in which it appointed Peter S. Vogel (the “Receiver”) to serve as the Receiver for Defendant Jeffrey Baron (and every other “Receivership Party”)³ (collectively, “Baron”) with the full power of an equity receiver (“Receivership Order”). The Receivership Order provides, among other things, that the Receiver shall:

[I]nvestigate, conserve, hold and manage all Receivership Assets, and perform all acts necessary or advisable to preserve the value of those assets . . . [and]

[P]revent the inequitable distribution of assets and determine, adjust, and protect the interests of creditors who have transacted business with the Receivership Party.

² The Court realizes that since it is adopting in a substantial way the Receiver’s proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it should act with greater caution in issuing its Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order on Assessment and Disbursement of Former Attorney Claims. See McLennan v. Am. Eurocopter Corp., Inc., 245 F.3d 403, 409 (2001). The Court has read the Receiver’s submission closely and determined that it is appropriate. In no way has there been a “lack of person attention.” See In re Luhr Brothers, 157 F.3d 333 (5th Cir. 1998).

³ The term “Receivership Party” includes “any entity under the direct or indirect control of Jeffrey Baron, whether by virtue of ownership, beneficial interest, a position as officer, director, power of attorney or any other authority or right to act.” [Docket No. 124.] In subsequent orders, the Court clarified what it originally and had always meant by the term “Receivership Party” by identifying specific entities that fall under such definition. [Docket Nos. 176, 272, and 287.]

3. One of the goals in issuing the Receivership Order and creating the Receivership was for the Receiver to collect evidence of the Former Attorney Claims (the “Evidence”) and then, with the Court’s guidance, instructions, and orders, disburse assets to resolve the Former Attorney Claims. [December 17, 2010, Hearing Transcript at 13-14; February 10, 2011, Hearing Transcript at 18:2-10; and March 4, 2011, Hearing Transcript at 8:13-17.]

4. After the Receivership commenced and after the Court held a multi-day hearing on Baron’s Motion to Stay the Receivership (which the Court denied [Docket No. 268]), the Court ordered the Receiver to collect the Evidence, assess the Evidence, and file the Evidence and the assessment (the “First Instruction”). [February 10, 2011, Hearing Transcript at 40:19-25; 41:1-6.] The Receiver complied fully with the Receivership Order (and particularly, the First Instruction), in filing the Receiver’s First Assessment Regarding Former Baron Attorneys (the “Assessment”). [Docket No. 349.] In filing the Assessment, the Receiver fulfilled both his fiduciary obligations to Baron (by, among other reasons, complying with the Conservation Obligations) and the instructions of the Court (by, among other reasons, complying with the First Instruction and all other instructions necessary to comply with the Receivership Order).

5. Subsequently, the Court ordered the Receiver to continue collecting additional Evidence, assess the additional Evidence (“Additional Assessments”), and file a motion to approve the Assessment and the Additional Assessments and address related issues such as whether Baron was entitled to a jury trial on each of the Former Attorney Claims (the “Second Instruction” and together with the First Instruction collectively, the “Instructions”). [March 4, 2011, Hearing Transcript 47:12-15.] The Receiver complied fully with the Receivership Order (and, in particular, the Second Instruction) in filing the Motion to Approve Assessment and Disbursement of Former Attorney Claims [Docket No. 396], Second Motion to Approve Assessment and Disbursement of Former Attorney Claims [Docket No. 400], and Third Motion to Approve Assessment and Disbursement of Former Attorney Claims [Docket No. 411] (collectively, the “Motions”). In filing the Motions and the Assessment, the Receiver fulfilled both his fiduciary obligations to Baron (by, among other reasons, complying with the Conservation Obligations) and the instructions of the Court (by, among other reasons, complying with the Instructions and all other instructions necessary to comply with the Receivership Order).

6. On May 6, 2011, the Court denied the Motions without prejudice, and in that Order, the Court ordered the Receiver to file the Fourth Motion with specific instructions “to recalculate its proposed disbursements taking into account the Court’s cap of $400.00 per hour and resubmit its Motion to Approve Assessment and Disbursement of Former Attorney Claims with new disbursement totals” (the “Third Instruction”). [Docket No. 527.] The Receiver complied fully with the Receivership Order (and, in particular, the Third Instruction) in filing the Fourth Motion. In filing the Fourth Motion (as well as the prior Motions and the Assessment), the Receiver fulfilled both his fiduciary obligations to Baron (by, among other reasons, complying with the Conservation Obligations) and the instructions of the Court (by, among other reasons, complying with the Instructions and all other instructions necessary to comply with the Receivership Order).

7. Through the Receivership Order (and, in particular, the Conservation Obligations, and the Instructions), the Receiver was not required to attempt to negotiate settlements of the Former Attorney Claims (“Settlement Obligation”). Mr. Baron’s own counsel, Mr. Gary Schepps, previously represented to the Court at a hearing on March 4, 2011 that he, personally, was in the process of attempting to negotiate settlements of the Former Attorney Claims. [March

4, 2011, Hearing Transcript at 36:3-9, 12-22.] The Court understood such statements to indicate that Mr. Baron (through Mr. Schepps) was fully assuming the Settlement Obligation, and therefore, the Receiver did not assume any part of the Settlement Obligation. Therefore, the fact that the Receiver properly did not assume the Settlement Obligation is both consistent with the Receivership Order (and, particularly, the Conservation Obligations), and the Instructions, and it also satisfies the Receiver's fiduciary obligations to Baron. Nevertheless, although the Receiver properly did not assume the Settlement Obligations, the Fourth Motion the Receiver filed does effectively propose a settlement and compromise of the Former Attorney Claims that will benefit both Baron and the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims. This will be described further in Section E, infra.

8. Through the Receivership Order (and, particularly, the Conservation Obligations) and the Instructions, the Receiver was not required to collect or offer evidence or make arguments to controvert the Former Attorney Claims ("Defense Obligation"). The Court previously instructed Mr. Baron and Mr. Schepps to assume fully the Defense Obligation. [March 4, 2011, Hearing Transcript 31:22-25; 32:1-17.] The fact that the Receiver did not assume the Defense Obligation is both consistent with the Receivership Order (and in particular, the Conservation Obligations and the Instructions), and it also satisfies the Receiver's fiduciary obligations to Baron.

B. Findings Relating to Proceeding in Equity Rather than at Law.

9. A receivership, at its base level, is an equitable remedy and assets collected by a receiver are considered to be "equitable" assets. See Santibanez v. Wier McMahon & Co., 105 F.3d 234, 241 (5th Cir. 1997) (stating that "receivership may be an appropriate remedy . . . to subject equitable assets to the payment of . . . claim[s]"); Gaskill v. Gordon, 27 F.3d 248, 251

(7th Cir. 1994) (“Receivership is an equitable remedy.”); SEC v. Amerifirst Funding, Inc., No. 3:07-cv-1188, 2007 WL 2192632, at *1 (N.D. Tex. July 31, 2007) (Fitzwater, J.) (characterizing “court-ordered asset freeze and receivership” as “equitable relief”); McDermott v. Russell, 523 F. Supp. 347, 352 (E.D. Pa. 1981) (“[T]he appointment of a receiver is an equitable remedy.”). All proceedings to determine whether to disburse receivership assets are therefore considered “equitable proceedings.” See In re Triplet, 84 B.R. 84, 86 (W.D. Tex. 1988) (describing receivership as an “equitable proceeding”); Brock v. Bandera Drilling Co., 675 F. Supp. 1507, 1508 (N.D. Tex. 1987) (same); see also Bermant v. Broadbent, No. 2:05-cv-466, 2006 WL 3692661, at *12 (D. Utah Dec. 12, 2006) (noting that the subject of the receivership cannot circumvent the authority of the court to resolve within the primary case those disputes directly implicating the receivership estate by suggesting that he is seeking relief at-law as opposed to at-equity).

10. Here, the Receiver collected, or is in the process of collecting, receivership assets, all of which are, as a matter of law, equitable assets. Through the Fourth Motion—which the Court ordered the Receiver to file through the Third Instruction—the Receiver proposed that the Court disburse certain of the equitable assets, thereby triggering the need for a proceeding in equity—not a proceeding at law.

11. When a receiver proposes the disbursement of receivership assets through an equitable proceeding, the court may utilize summary proceedings. United States v. Ariz. Fuels Corp., 739 F.2d 455, 458-60 (9th Cir. 1984) (“[t]he traditional rule is that summary proceedings are appropriate and proper to protect equity receivership assets . . . Receivership courts have the general power to use summary procedure in allowing, disallowing, and subordinating the claims of creditors”); F.T.C. v. J.K. Publ’ns, Inc., No CV-99-00044, 2009 WL 997421, at *4 (C.D. Cal.

Apr. 13, 2009) (recognizing the power of the district court presiding over the receivership to utilize summary proceedings to adjudicate third-party claims); Bermant, 2006 WL 3692661, at *12 (“The weight of authority indicates that the court overseeing the receivership is entitled to use summary proceedings to resolve all issues related to the receivership.”); United States v. Fairway Capital Corp., 433 F. Supp. 2d 226, 241 (D. R.I. 2006) (“Federal district courts have wide discretion in granting relief in an equity receivership and may use summary proceedings in fashioning such relief.”); FDIC v. Bernstein, 786 F. Supp. 170, 177-78 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (noting that in equity receiverships, a court may “determine in a summary proceeding the rights and obligations of the parties to the contract, particularly when the issues presented involve a simple matter of contract interpretation”); SEC v. Credit Bancorp, Ltd., No. 99-civ-11395, 2000 WL 968010, at *14 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 8, 2000) (“summary proceedings are relatively commonplace in order to determine the proper handling or distribution of the assets of an equity receivership in relation to claims made upon those assets”). One appellate court stated it succinctly:

Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure gives the district court summary jurisdiction over all the receivership proceedings and allows the district court to disregard the Federal Rules. The district court has broad powers and wide discretion to determine relief in an equity receivership. This discretion derives from the inherent powers of an equity court to fashion relief. In granting relief, it is appropriate for the district court to use summary proceedings.

The government’s and parties’ interests in judicial efficiency underlie the use of a single receivership proceeding. A summary proceeding reduces the time necessary to settle disputes, decreases litigation costs, and prevents further dissipation of receivership assets.

12. Importantly, although the subject of the receivership is not entitled to a jury trial, he does have other rights. For example, the subject of the receivership should receive notice of the motion to disburse the receivership assets, an opportunity to file a responsive pleading, and an opportunity to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses at a hearing. See SEC v.

Wencke, 783 F.2d 829, 838 (9th Cir. 1986) (subject of receivership not denied due process because, even without a jury trial, the subject of the receivership had notice of the proceedings, an opportunity to file responsive pleadings, and could have presented evidence and cross-examined witnesses at hearings); SEC v. Credit Bancorp, Ltd., No. 99-civ-11395, 2000 WL 968010, at *14 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 8, 2000) (requiring notice an opportunity to be heard prior to hearing on disbursements of receivership assets). Here, the Court finds that Baron has not been denied any of these other rights.

13. In determining whether to order the disbursements proposed in the Fourth Motion, the Court may utilize summary proceedings—e.g., by considering the Fourth Motion, the Evidence submitted by the Receiver, and all evidence submitted before the Court at the Hearing.

C. Findings Relating to Standing to Demand Jury Trials.

14. A receiver stands in the shoes of the subject of the receivership and maintains the subject's legal rights. See, e.g., Gravel Res. of Arizona v. Hills, 217 Ariz. 33, 38, 170 P.3d 282, 287 (Ariz. App. Div. 1, 2007). Because a receiver maintains the subject's legal rights in general (a maiore), including the subject's legal rights to disburse any or all of the receivership assets, then as argumentum a fortiori, the receiver maintains the subject's specific legal rights relating to demand a jury trial on issues relating to the disbursement of certain of those receivership assets (ad maius). Hamm v. J. Stone & Sons Live-Stock Co., 35 S.W. 427, 418 (Tex. App. 1896). Modern case law bears this out as well. For example, in Gravel Resources, the general partners of a partnership in receivership claimed that by failing to litigate certain claims of the partnership, the receiver was violating the partnership's right to trial by jury. 217 Ariz. at 38, 170 P.3d at 287. The Arizona Court of Appeals held that because the receiver had the right to settle or compromise claims on behalf of the subjects of the receivership, he also had the right not to pursue claims, and that “this does not violate appellants’ right to trial by jury.” Id.

15. Baron’s assertion that he—as the subject of the Receivership—may demand a jury trial misunderstands his standing vis-à-vis those Former Attorney Claims. Because the Receiver maintains all of Mr. Baron’s legal rights with respect to the disbursement of any or all of the Receivership Assets, in terms of the Former Attorney Claims that seek disbursement of a certain subset of the Receivership Assets, the Receiver (and the Receiver alone, subject to the Court’s supervision) maintains Mr. Baron’s specific legal right to demand a jury trial (“Jury Right”). And, as previously stated, while Mr. Baron does—as the subject of the Receivership—maintain certain other limited legal rights (e.g., notice of the summary proceeding, opportunity to file responsive pleadings, opportunity to participate in a hearing), the Jury Right is not one of them. See Gravel Resources, 217 Ariz. at 38, 170 P.3d at 287. Thus, the only party with standing to assert the Jury Right is the Receiver.

D. Findings Relating to Waiver of Jury Trials.

16. With respect to the Former Attorney Claims, the Receiver has chosen not to assert the Jury Right. The Receiver advised the Court that, among its reasons for not asserting the Jury Right are those articulated by the Eleventh Circuit in SEC v. Elliot:

The . . . parties’ interests in judicial efficiency underlie the use of a single receivership proceeding. A summary proceeding reduces the time necessary to settle disputes, decreases litigation costs, and prevents further dissipation of receivership assets.

SEC v. Elliot, 953 F.2d at 1566 (citations omitted).

17. The Court agrees with the Receiver’s reasoning and finds that his decision not to invoke the Jury Right is both consistent with the Receivership Order (and particularly, the Conservation Obligations), and it also satisfies the Receiver’s fiduciary obligations to Baron.

18. Indeed, Baron, whom this Court has previously found to be a “vexatious litigant,” could quite possibly be found liable to some of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims for punitive damages, costs, and fees under theories of fraudulent misrepresentation, the Racketeer Influenced & Corrupt Organization Act 18 U.S.C. §§1961-1968, and the Texas Theft Liability Act (the “Punitive Claims”). Assuming a mere trebling of damages and reasonable cost award, Baron’s liability based on the Punitive Claims could easily exceed $2.8 million. The Receiver properly recognizes that a jury trial could likely lead to a judgment against Baron for the Punitive Claims. If the Former Baron Attorneys were to pursue the Punitive Claims, Baron would be facing fee claims of at least three times greater than what the Receiver proposes to pay through the Fourth Motion. The Fourth Motion effectively proposes a settlement of the Former Attorneys’ claims and the Punitive Claims at a discount of approximately 66% off the potential face amount.

19. Furthermore, and as discussed further in Section E., infra, the Fourth Motion seeks to compromise 8 of the 26 Former Attorney Claims through a fee cap, in which the maximum fee per hour for any timekeeper comprising each of those 8 Former Attorney Claims is capped at $400.00 (the “Fee Cap Reduction”). The Fee Cap Reduction for the 8 Former Attorney Claims leads to a collective savings for Baron of $140,501.28. The Receiver properly recognizes that a jury trial could likely lead to a judgment against Baron that would include the $140,501.28 otherwise saved through the Fee Cap Reduction.

20. Additionally, if the Court were to permit Baron to proceed with jury trials, Baron has advised the Court that he would hire multiple consulting and testifying experts, commence approximately two dozen separate litigation cases, each with extensive discovery periods and jury trials. The costs of such a process alone could consume millions of dollars, regardless of any judicial outcome (“the Trial Expenses”). The Fourth Motion effectively eliminates the Trial Expenses as well.

E. Findings Relating to Reasonableness of Proposed Compromise.

21. There is no binding precedent establishing the standards for approving the compromise of contract claims in a federal receivership, so the Court shall consider the guidelines used in the context of a bankruptcy. Under the Bankruptcy Code, the merits of a proposed compromise are judged under the criteria set forth in Protective Committee For Independent Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414 (1968). The Supreme Court’s opinion in TMT Trailer requires that a compromise must be “fair and equitable.” TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424; In re AWECO, Inc., 725 F.2d 293, 298 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 880 (1984). In determining whether a proposed compromise is fair and equitable, the Supreme Court recognizes a variety of factors including, among others, (a) the probabilities of ultimate success should the claim be litigated, (b) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of litigating the claim, and (c) all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the compromise. TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424. In applying the TMT Trailer factors, a court should determine whether the settlement “falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.” Cosoff v. Rodman (In re: W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983) (alteration in original) (quoting Newman v. Stein, 464 F.2d 689, 693 (2d Cir. 1972); In re: Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F. 2d. 599, 602 (5th Cir. 1980); In re: Teltronics Serv., Inc., 762 F.2d 185, 218 (2d Cir. 1985); In re Dow Corning Corp., 192 B.R. 415, 421 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1996).

22. In this case, the Court has reviewed the Admitted Evidence detailed below and finds that if the Former Attorney Claims were to be litigated, Baron would likely lose at trial, subjecting himself not only to the amounts of the Former Attorney Claims but also the Punitive Claims and the amounts otherwise saved in the Fee Cap Reduction. Furthermore, even if Baron were successful on some or all of the Former Attorney Claims, the complexity, expense, and likely duration of the litigation of the Former Attorney Claims would require Baron to incur Trial Expenses that could in no way compensate for any additional amounts saved by not paying the amount of the Former Attorney Claims proposed in the Fourth Motion. Paying the Former Attorney Claims in a manner consistent with this Order (as detailed in section H, infra) resolves the Former Attorney Claims, resolves the Punitive Claims (subject to the Exception detailed in section H, infra), reduces the amounts Baron must pay through the Fee Cap Reduction, and avoids the Trial Expenses. It is the wisest and, in fact, the only sensible path. Indeed, to state that the relief sought in the Fourth Motion falls above the lowest range of reasonableness is an understatement.

F. Admitted Evidence Before the Court.

23. On April 28, 2011, the Court held the Hearing. At the Hearing, the Receiver offered into evidence—without objection from Baron—and the Court admitted the following (the “Admitted Evidence”):

EXHIBIT NUMBER	EXHIBIT DESCRIPTION
1	Declaration of Dean Ferguson
2	Declaration of Jeff Rasansky (on behalf of Jeff Rasansky Law Firm and Charla Aldous Law Firm)
3	Declaration of Anthony Vitullo (on behalf of Fee, Smith, Sharp & Vitullo, LLP)

24	Declaration of Gerrit Pronske (on behalf of Pronske & Patel, P.C.)
25	Declaration of Craig Capua (on behalf of West & Associates, LLP)
	Declaration Robert Garrey ⁴

24. The Court recognizes that the Admitted Evidence consists of a number of declarations with attached documents that the Receiver painstakingly reviewed. The Court has also painstakingly reviewed this Admitted Evidence.

⁴ At the hearing on April 28, 2011, the Declaration of Robert Garrey was inadvertently not offered into evidence (the "Garrey Declaration"). The Receiver previously filed the Garrey Declaration as part of the Receiver's First Assessment Regarding Former Baron Attorneys and the Motion to Approve Assessment and Disbursement of Former Attorney Claims. [Docket Nos. 349 and 396.] Mr. Garrey also appeared at the hearing on April 28, 2011, and made himself available for examination by Baron. Finally, Baron did not offer evidence to controvert the Garrey Declaration. Therefore, the Court deems the Garrey Declaration admitted.

25. Although certain Former Baron Attorneys have claimed entitlement to damages pursuant to Punitive Claims, the Court recognizes that the Receiver based the Fourth Motion on purely contractual claims. In each instance, the fee claim was calculated by multiplying the number of hours actually worked by the agreed upon hourly rate (and in some cases, and as described in the next paragraph, including the Fee Cap Reduction). Furthermore, with respect to some of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims, the rate agreed with Mr. Baron represented a discount off their normally prevailing rates. In other words, not only does the Fourth Motion seek to free Baron from exposure from the Punitive Claims and provide him with the Fee Cap Reduction, but they actually propose a discount off the contractual claims. Below is a chart summarizing the Admitted Evidence:

EX.	DESCRIPTION	FORMER ATTORNEY CLAIM	PROPOSED DISBURSEMENT	AMOUNT NOT PROPOSED FOR DISBURSEMENT	REASON FOR NON-DISBURSEMENT (IF APPLICABLE)

G. Baron’s Failure to Controvert the Admitted Evidence.

26. Just prior to the Hearing, Baron filed his own declaration (the “Baron Declaration”). [Docket No. 499-2.] During the course of the Hearing and with the possibility of being cross-examined on the Baron Declaration, Baron withdrew the Baron Declaration (the “Withdrawal”). Prior to making the Withdrawal, Baron was advised by the Court that the Withdrawal would result in the Admitted Evidence being uncontroverted evidence. Nonetheless, Baron made the Withdrawal despite knowing its result.

27. Just prior to the Hearing, Baron also filed the declaration of his attorney, Mr. Schepps (the “Schepps Declaration”). [Docket No. 499-1.] The Court finds that the Schepps Declaration does not contain any evidence to contravene the Admitted Evidence.⁵

⁵ The Schepps Declaration also makes a number of allegations that are not supported by any evidence. For example, the Schepps Declaration alleges that the Receiver:

- Failed to provide certain documents necessary for Baron to oppose the Motions. The Receiver represented in open court that he did, in fact, provide to Baron every document he obtained from the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims. Baron did not controvert this representation (and conceded that perhaps the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims might not have provided the Receiver with these documents in the first place).
- Failed to provide Baron with funding to retain additional counsel and an expert to defend against the Former Attorney Claims. The Receiver represented in open court that he was not opposed to these requests and had advised Baron of this position on March 4, 2011. Baron did not controvert this representation (and inexplicably, Baron waited weeks to move the Court for this relief; due to the untimeliness of the requested relief, the Court denied the relief).
- “Fired” one his former attorneys. The Court has seen no evidence supporting this allegation.

28. At the Hearing, a number of witnesses (including many of the declarants of the declarations compromising the Admitted Evidence) appeared and offered themselves for examination by Baron (see Hearing Transcript). Baron, however, chose not to call any of these witnesses to testify, and instead, permitted the Admitted Evidence to remain uncontroverted.

29. After the Hearing, on May 1, 2011, Baron filed a brief entitled Post Trial Brief: Specific Evidence Based Defenses. [Docket No. 502.] This brief includes no evidence to controvert the Admitted Evidence since it lacks any declarations or any other type of evidence.

30. After the Hearing, on May 3, 2011, Baron filed a document entitled Motion for Leave to Supplement Record with Newly Discovered Evidence (“First Motion for Leave”). [Docket No. 507.] For the reasons stated in a prior Order from this Court, the Court denied the First Motion for Leave. [Docket No. 541.]

31. After the Hearing, on May 5, 2011, Baron filed a document entitled Motion for Leave to File: Second Motion to Supplement Record with Newly Discovered Evidence. (“Second Motion for Leave”). [Docket No. 519.] For the reasons stated in a prior Order from this Court, the Court denied the Second Motion for Leave. [Docket No. 544.]

32. After the Hearing, on May 5, 2011, Baron filed a document entitled Motion for Leave to File: Motion to Strike Receiver’s Erroneous “Notice” of Allegedly Erroneous Statement Regarding Evidence of Former Attorney Claims [DOC 571] [sic] (“Third Motion for Leave”). [Docket No. 520.] For the reasons stated in a prior Order from this Court, the Court denied the Third Motion for Leave. [Docket No. 545.]

33. After the Hearing, on May 6, 2011, Baron filed a document entitled Motion for Leave to File: Sur-reply to Stan Broome’s False, Misleading, and Fraudulent Reply [DOC 478] and Affidavit [DOC 478-1] (“Fourth Motion for Leave”). [Docket No. 522.] For the reasons stated in a prior Order from this Court, the Court denied the Fourth Motion for Leave. [Docket No. 549.]

34. After the Hearing, on May 6, 2011, Baron filed a document entitled Motion for Leave to File: Third Motion to Supplement Record with Newly Discovered Evidence [DOC 478-1] (“Fifth Motion for Leave”). [Docket No. 523.] For the reasons stated in a prior Order from this Court, the Court denied the Fifth Motion for Leave. [Docket No. 550.]

H. Orders on Payment of Former Attorney Claims.

35. The Court orders that once the Receiver has obtained cash to pay the Former Attorney Claims,⁶ and only if the Receiver receives a Waiver as set forth in paragraphs 36 and 37 below, the Receiver shall pay the following Former Attorney Claims:

FIRM/ATTORNEY NAME	AMOUNT
Dean Ferguson	$73,885.00
Fee, Smith, Sharp & Vitullo, LLP	$27,674.86
Shaver Law Firm	$6,500.00
Broome Law Firm, PLLC	$28,373.46
James Eckels	$4,112.50
Joshua Cox	$625.00
Friedman & Feiger, LLP	$54,949.80
Jones, Otjen & Davis	$11,638.52
David Pacione	$10,018.30
Sidney Chesnin	$4,952.60

⁶ The Court recognizes that the Receiver has filed several motions seeking liquidation of assets to fund these disbursements. The Court will issue rulings on these motions separately.

FIRM/ATTORNEY NAME	AMOUNT
Jeffrey Hall	$5,000.00
Reyna Hinds & Crandall	$8,931.84
Schurig Jetel Beckett Tackett LLP	$93,731.79
Powers Taylor, LLP	$78,058.50
Gary Lyon	$75,922.22
Bickel & Brewer	$50,142.73
Hitchcock Evert LLP	$9,071.69
Michael B. Nelson, Inc.	$23,788.31
Hohmann, Taube & Summers, LLP	$38,599.37
Pronske & Patel, P.C.	$177,352.70
West & Associates, LLP	$34,633.00
Robert Garrey	$52,275.00
TOTAL:	$870,237.19

36. As stated above, the Court understands that certain of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims are claiming that, in addition to the amounts of the Former Attorney Claims, they are entitled to bring Punitive Claims. Furthermore, the Court understands that eight of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claimants are seeking the amounts not being awarded to them because of the Fee Cap Reduction (and which these claimants have a right to challenge through motion before this Court or through an appeal). The Court also understands that Baron claims that certain of the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims are allegedly liable for legal malpractice and other civil claims (collectively, "Baron Claims"). Within ten (10) days of the issuance of this Order, the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims shall advise the Receiver in writing (who will then advise the Court) as to whether they will agree to waive their Punitive Claims and accept the Fee Cap Reduction subject to the Exception defined below (the "Waiver"). Claimants of the Former Attorney Claims that have made the Waiver within the aforementioned time period shall receive the aforementioned amount of their Former Attorney Claims detailed in paragraph 35, supra, and, subject to the following Exception, shall have waived their respective Punitive Claims and the amounts not being awarded them through the Fee Cap Reduction (and they shall have waived their right to challenge through motion before this Court or through an appeal).

36. Through this Order, Baron maintains any and all rights to bring, after the end of the Receivership, the Baron Claims. The Court, however, remains concerned about Baron continuing to be a vexatious litigant. To encourage Baron not to be a vexatious litigant, the Court enters this Exception and orders that the claimants of the Former Attorney Claims, even if they agreed to the Waiver, shall not be deemed to have agreed to the Waiver to the extent they wish to assert the Punitive Claims as counterclaims against any subsequent Baron Claims and/or the amounts of the Fee Cap Reductions as counterclaims against any subsequent Baron Claims. In other words, if Baron asserts the Baron Claims against any attorney, that attorney may bring his or her own Punitive Claims and/or claims to seek the amount of his or her own Fee Cap Reductions against Baron as counterclaims.

It is so ORDERED.

order to preserve the amounts on hand until the Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit can rule on the pending appeal.

A brief review of the history of this matter is in order. After the Ondova Bankruptcy was filed, this action was stayed in order for the Bankruptcy Court to resolve the issues in bankruptcy. As the Bankruptcy Court was employing her best efforts to do so, the case became overwhelmed by a revolving door of lawyers entering and exiting the proceedings at the behest of Jeffrey Baron, the other Defendant in the instant action before this Court. Given that the Bankruptcy Court manages a docket of approximately 4,000 cases, the disruption to the work of that Court threatened the administration of her entire docket. At the same time, claims by Baron's attorneys against the Ondova estate threatened to completely bury the ability of the Bankruptcy Court to resolve the bankruptcy itself. So that the Bankruptcy Court could accomplish her work in the one case and adequately administer her docket of all her cases, this Court created the Receivership. Also, to try to deal with the numerous claims for fees and expenses of the numerous lawyers that Baron had hired and fired, the Court set up a procedure to receive and adjudicate the claims, again in order to relieve the burden on the Bankruptcy Court. Again, the goal was to give the Bankruptcy Court the ability to complete the bankruptcy case.

At no point did this Court decide that the Receivership would continue passed the time needed to achieve its goals. The Court also was at the time and still is of the opinion that the Receivership was the least restrictive way of achieving its goals, including the resolution of the claims by the Baron lawyers. Since one of the appeals of Receivership Orders deals with the Court's decision regarding those claims, Baron should be able to contest the decision before funds are distributed.

At the same time, given the importance of the appeal to the former Baron attorneys, those attorneys should be afforded the opportunity to have their voice heard before the Court of Appeals. Exactly how that would be accomplished is not within the purview of this Court.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that no funds be distributed to the former Baron attorneys until the completion of the appeal. Those funds now available will be segregated and set aside by the Receiver until a decision is made by the Court of Appeals.

It is further ORDERED that the Receiver notify the former Baron attorneys of this decision, of the appeal, and of the Court's view that they, as a group, should intervene in the appeal of their issue so that the Court of Appeals has a clear understanding of their stake in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
