Case No. 3:09-CV-0988-F

COUNSEL FOR JEFFREY BARON'S REPORT REGARDING MOVANT'S PARTICIPATION IN PSYCHOTHERAPY

- 1) On January 4, 2011 this Honorable Court conducted a hearing at which time His Honor became concerned about Movant's, Jeffrey Baron, mental state.
- 2) At such time His Honor directed undersigned counsel to make arrangements to ensure that Mr. Baron received appropriate psychotherapy before the weeks end.
- 3) Undersigned Counsel contacted numerous medical providers in an effort to get Jeffrey Baron into treatment on such short notice. The only provider that Undersigned Counsel was successful in locating, who could accommodate Movant, was a Dr. Randy Ingram, Ph.D. He is located in Carrollton, Texas, near Movant's residence [Movant either walks or takes the bus for transportation]. Although Dr. Ingram is not a licensed psychologist, he works under one and is going to receive his license shortly. He is experienced in treating depression and anxiety.
- 4) Movant executed a Waiver of Confidentiality as to between Dr. Ingram and Undersigned Counsel. Undersigned Counsel has filled Dr. Ingram in on the case. Undersigned Counsel followed up with Dr. Ingram after the Movants scheduled appointment at 10:00 a.m. on January 6, 2011, to ensure that Movant had indeed attended his appointment, and was informed by Dr. Ingram that he had (See Attachment).

- 5) Undersigned Counsel paid for the forgoing referral appointment out of his pocket with his credit card, since it was on such short notice, in order to comply with this Court's directive. In the process of setting up this appointment it was determine that the Receivership had directly caused Baron's insurance to be canceled. Undersigned Counsel is presently cooperating with Mr. Barry M. Golden, counsel for Peter Vogel, the Receiver in this case, in an effort to determine what caused this lapse in Mr. Baron's insurance. Mr. Barrett and Mr. Golden have agreed to continue cooperating in an ongoing effort to make funds available to Jeff Baron for any and all medical purposes while his insurance is out of coverage.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

/s/ Peter M. Barrett

Re: Jeff Baron

Dear Mr. Barrett:

This is to confirm that Mr. Jeffrey Baron did come in for an hour of personal counseling on January 6, 2011. He signed a waiver in order for me to communicate this information directly to you. He did schedule a second counseling session for February 3, 2011.

Respectfully,

Dr. Randy Ingram
