Subject: RE: Approval of Termination of Accreditation and Bulk Transfer

Sam, Erin, Amy, Eric, Robert

A receiver was appointed over Mr Baron today at 1:15 pm Central time by Senior United States Federal District Court Judge Royal Ferguson.

The order also immediately suspends, enjoins and stays the transfer of the names by ICANN through the de - accredited registrar process.

The newly appointed Receiver, Peter Vogel, will be sending you a copy of the order shortly.

Please call if you would like to discuss this matter. Thank you.

Subject: Approval of Termination of Accreditation and Bulk Transfer

Dear Mr. Nelson,

We confirm receipt of your written notice of termination of your registrar's RAA. We have completed our internal review and in accordance with ICANN's Inter-Registrar Transfer Policy, we approve your request to designate Fabulous.com Pty Ltd. as the gaining registrar to receive the bulk transfer of all names currently under management of your registrar. We will contact the relevant registries shortly and you can coordinate the timing of the bulk transfers with the registries directly after they contact you.

The termination will be effective on 30 November 2010. As requested, ICANN waives the remainder of the 30-day notice period set forth in the RAA.

Please note that your registrar remains responsible for all outstanding fees due to ICANN which are incurred up until the effective date of termination, which is 30 November, 2010. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Brian Peck
Registrar Liaison Manager
ICANN
