Re: 3-09CV0988-F In Re Jeffrey Baron Receivership Order

Your Honor,

In case Your Honor is not fully aware of Peter Vogel's billing practices, in an abundance of caution I raise the matter to the Court's attention. In a continuation of his previous practice, Vogel has just billed thousands of dollars to generate yet another inflated and contrived controversy, as follows:

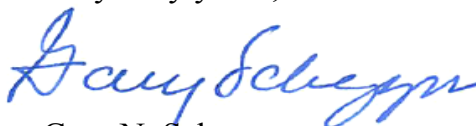

Recently, I informed Vogel that I was willing to assist him in distributing monthly checks to Jeffrey Baron, but that I would need to be reimbursed for my time. I requested a single hour's fee. Jeff is unable to pay the fee as he has been ordered not to use any of the monthly disbursement to pay any attorneys' fees.

Rather than responding in an honest, up-front, and professional manner, Vogel has turned to his fee generation scheme and filed a 146 page 'notice' (Doc 871) which falsely represents Vogel's fabricated fiction passed off as truth that "Mr. Schepps is complaining that he does not represent Mr. Baron and cannot accept the monthly living-expenses check." (emphasis in original). In Vogel's bogus 'notice', Vogel has clipped various out-of-context material to 'support' his contrived 'facts' in a nine-page rant disparaging counsel.

As receiver, Peter Vogel is a representative of the Court. Vogel's fabricated facts, manufactured billing, and personally directed invective should have no place in these proceedings.
